WILLIAM MILNE, C.A., Aberdeen.

By Saint Andrew, here's a common fellow, a stipendiary, with four pounds a year and a livery cloak, thinks himself too good to serve Ritt Master Dugald Dalgetty of Drumthwacket, who has studied humanity at the Marischal College of Aberdeen, and served half the princes of Europe.—Legend of Montrose.

William's Father, a man always venerable to me, had founded Marischal College, Aberdeen, — where for a few, in these stern granite Countries, the Diviner Pursuits are still possible (thank God and this Keith) on frugal oatmeal.—Carlyle's Friedrich.

Why have we not a history of Marischal College and University, or, at least, an Athenae et Fasti of that venerable institution? . . . The roll of the notabilities of Marischal College might seem not an insignificant one. At all events, it is the bounden duty of any Anthony Wood that may be living now in Aberdeen to do his best to draw it up. . . . For, alas! the history may now be rounded off and complete. There is still a fine granite building called Marischal College, in which a portion of the work of the United University is carried on; but the real antique establishment—Dugald Dalgetty's Marischal College and mine—is no longer in rerum natura.—Professor Masson in Macmillan's Magazine, February, 1864.

PREFACE TO VOLUME II.

THE first volume of the Fasti Academiae Mariscallanae dealt with the Endowments of the College. It was the intention of the editor to include in the second volume not merely the Roll of Officers, Graduates and Alumni, but such other University records as seemed worthy of print. The unexpectedly great amount of space occupied by the lists of names—the Fasti proper—has, however, made it necessary to postpone selections from Faculty Minutes, from Visitation Reports, from Acts of Parliament and of Privy Council, from the Register of the Aberdeen Town Council, and from other muniments illustrating the history of the University.

The editor desires, meanwhile, to register the sources, manuscript and printed, from which he has compiled the lists printed in the volume now issued; and to chronicle the friends whose obliging assistance has enabled him to identify so many of the persons that these lists include.

The youngest of the Scottish Universities, Marischal College is singular in possessing no continuous record of teachers or of students. Their names have had to be brought together from printed Theses, from occasional Matriculation rolls, from Chamber Maills accounts, from Diploma vouchers, from Presentations to bursaries by Town Council and Incorporated Trades, from Grammar School exit lists, and from other sources detailed at length below. Yet this lack of continuity is, to some extent at least, compensated for by the amount of information that can be obtained regarding the parentage of the alumni—for bursars from 1619, for all students from 1773—information such as prior to 1860 is not known to have been recorded in the archives of the Universities of St. Andrews, Glasgow, King's College, and Edinburgh.

“ When in Edinburgh attending the General Assembly in May, 1870, I was informed by the Lord Clerk Register, the Rt. Honble. Sir William Gibson-Craig, Bart., that this volume had been found in the Register Office. I requested that it might be given up to me for the University, and, at Sir W. G. C.’s suggestion, embodied that request in a letter to him. This letter he forwarded to H.M. Government, and, in accordance with the instructions sent to him, he placed the volume in my hands on behalf of the University. Neither Sir W. G. C., nor any of the officials of the Register Office, succeeded in ascertaining when and how the volume had been brought to Edinburgh. The conjecture that it had been taken possession of by the Government in connection with the political troubles of 1715, in which the Earl Marischal and the officials of the College were implicated, is obviated by the fact that the volume contains entries as late as 1721. The most probable conjecture, we concluded, was that it had been forwarded to Edinburgh in connection with some legal process in the last century, and had not been reclaimed.

<sup>1</sup> In not a few instances the editor has been obliged to call in question the identifications of the Fasti Eccl. Scot. It must be borne in mind that, when compiling his monumental work, Dr. Scott had access neither to Album I. (see footnote on p. viii.) nor to any of the records used by the present editor to fill up the gap from 1682-83 to 1699-1700, nor to the Town Council Register, where alone, from 1619 to 1773, are entered the names of students' fathers. The earlier graduation lists of St. Andrews (not yet printed), of Glasgow (printed in part in the Munimenta), of King's College (printed in part in the Fasti Aberd.), and of Edinburgh (printed in 1858 and 1867), have no record of parentage. These appear to have been examined by Dr. Scott, as also probably Albums II.-IV. of Marischal College, and his method seems to have been to identify A. B., ordained minister of the parish of C. in say 1650 with the like named graduate of St. Andrews, Glasgow, King's Coll. or Edinburgh nearest in date to 1650: allowance being made, in doubtful cases, for the proximity of C. to these four Universities respectively. It is easy to see how some of these identifications might be upset by the discovery of the Marischal registers, with in many cases the parentage of the students.

The manuscript Collections of Professor William Knight, partly in the University Library, and partly in the hands of his surviving daughter,<sup>1</sup> have proved of immense service. Of the older College archives Knight had a minute knowledge, and from 1810, when he first became associated with the teaching staff of the University, until his death in 1844, he lost no opportunity of recording every incident bearing upon College history. A considerable portion of his Collections had been written out by him, for use, it would appear, by the original Spalding Club.

Principal Sir William D. Geddes has furnished many valuable identifications and suggestions.

The Rev. Stephen Ree, minister of Boharm, has been able to supply numerous details regarding the schoolmasters of the district served by the Universities of Aberdeen, a subject of which he has made a special study.

The intimate acquaintance with Aberdeenshire genealogy possessed by Surgeon-Colonel William Johnston of Newton Dee has contributed much to the accurate identification of students at the College during the last hundred years of its existence.

To Mr. James F. Kellas Johnstone, London, the editor is under obligations which he cannot adequately express. Mr. Johnstone's extensive knowledge of the men and books of Northern Scotland, especially during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, has been freely drawn upon; and he has grudged neither time nor trouble in examining records and verifying references that were inconvenient of access to the editor. It may be safely said that there is hardly a page of this volume but owes some of its interest to Mr. Johnstone's diligence. The unusually complete Index, which will be issued to members in a separate form, is due entirely to him.

These four members of the New Spalding Club have also laid the editor under a debt of gratitude by reading all the proof sheets of this volume, as they issued from the press.

The editor has further to express his indebtedness to Mr. A. M. Munro, Town House, Aberdeen, and Mr. R. S. Rait, New College, Oxford, for frequent assistance; to several old Marischal College alumni and others, for the use of Class Records and for information regarding students; to the possessors of portraits, who have permitted their reproduction in this volume; and to Mr. Joseph Ogilvie, LL.D., and the late Mr. Alexander Cruickshank, LL.D., who defrayed the cost of the photogravures of Dr. James Melvin and Professor John Cruickshank.

OFFICERS OF MARISCHAL COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY. CHANCELLORS.<sup>1</sup>

1593. George Keith, fifth Earl Marischal, Baron Keith and Altrie.

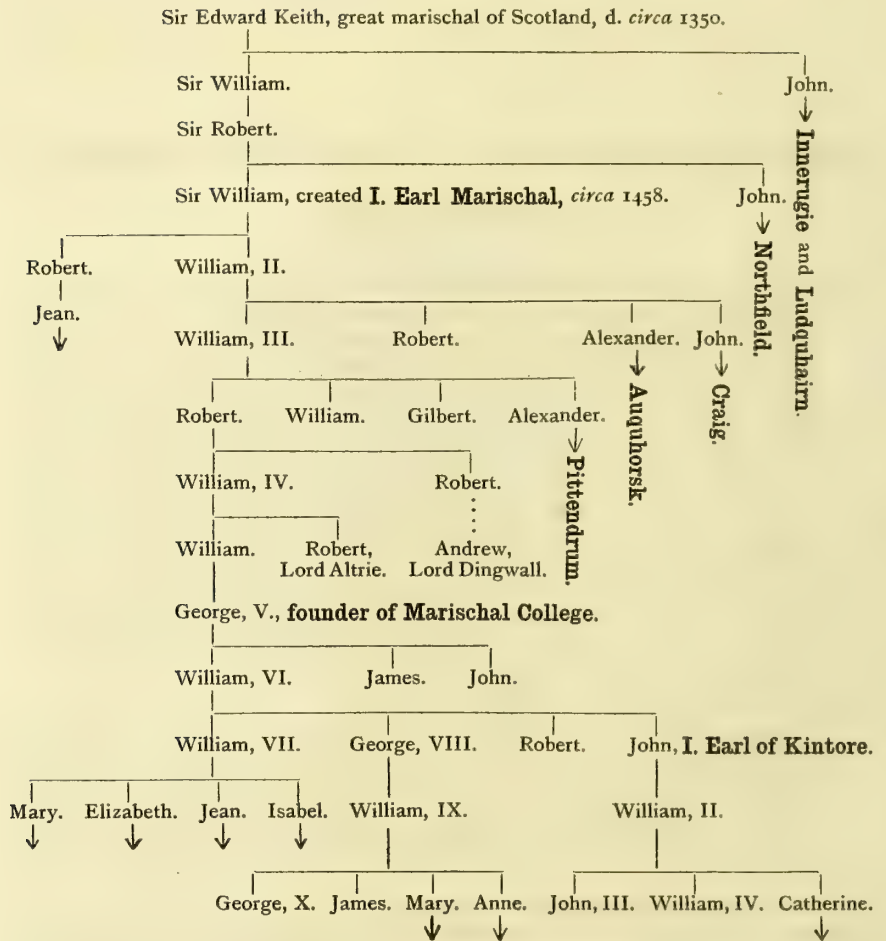

Married, 1st, Margaret, dau. of Alexander, fifth Baron Home, with issue, William, sixth Earl, Anne (m. William, second Earl of Morton), Margaret (m. Sir Robert Arbuthnot): and, 2nd, Margaret, dau. of James, sixth Baron Ogilvie, with issue, James and John, who both died without legitimate male issue. Died 2nd April, 1623. Portrait after Jamesone in possession of University, reproduced in Vol. I., and in the great window, Mitchell Hall, Mar. Coll. (Dict. Nat. Biog. Douglas' Peerage. G. E. C.'s Complete Peerage. See also Ogston's Oratio funebris in obitum Georgii, etc., Abred., 1623. Lachrymae Academiae Marischallanae sub obitum Georgii, etc., Abred., 1623. Smith's Oratio in qua Acad. Marisch. Maecenates commemorantur, Abred., 1702. Delit. Poet. Scot., II., 314. The editor has been unable to trace a copy of Thomas Cargill's "Verse in Latin in commendatioune of my Lord Marischeall for erecking the new College in Aberdeen," printed for the Aberdeen Town Council in 1593. Notes and Queries, 7, I., 129.)

1623. William Keith, sixth Earl Marischal.

Married, Mary, dau. of John, seventh Earl of Mar, with issue, William, seventh Earl; George, eighth Earl; Robert, d. unm.; John, first Earl of Kintore; Mary (m. John, Lord Kinpont), Jean (m. Alexander, Lord Pitsligo), and Anne. Died 28th October, 1635. Portrait by Jamesone in possession of Major the Hon. Robert Baillie-Hamilton, reproduced in Vol. I. (Dict.

<sup>1</sup> The duties of the Chancellor are set forth in the Foundation Charter (Vol. I., p. 39), but nothing is said as to the mode of election. In one passage (p. 44) it is implied that he may be "minister verbi," but the Earls Marischal were regarded as Chancellors till their forfeiture in 1716. Their usual title, however, was "patron," the college being called the "Earl Marischal's College". They issued presentations to the Principalship and the Regencies: see Vol. I., p. 69.

<sup>1</sup> This very scarce volume contains three epigrams by Arthur Johnston, which have eluded the notice of the editor of Musa Latina Aberd. They run as follows:—

“IN OBITUM ILLUSTRISSIMI WILHELMI KETHI COMITIS MARESCALLANI.

“Tot modo terrarum dominus, nunc KETHUS Olympum
Possidet et superi jugera vasta soli.
Marmoreas fugiens et dignas regibus arces,
Aurea nunc coeli, cum Iove, tecta colit.
Et quos audierat saeculis egisse triumphos
Bis tribus, ingentes hic prope cernit avos.
Quemque clientelis stipatum vidimus, astra
Nunc super, aligero cingitur ille choro.
Et satur ambrosia est et vivit nectare Divum,
Cui latices tellus ante dapesque dedit.
Si bona praeteritis confers praesentia, KETHUS
Dum foret in terris, pauper inopsque fuit.
Si tamen ingenii dotes, animique potentis
Aurea pensentur munera, dives erat.

“ALIUD.

“Ipse tua radians et avita luce coruscus,
Gentis Hyperboreae gloria, KETHE, jaces.
Illustris tibi vita fuit, mors aemula vitae est,
Illa tuis meritis, conjugis ista nitet.
Te Dea complexa est morientem mollibus ulnis,
Fovit et ambrosio frigida colla sinu :
Ore legens animam, labris infudit amomum,
Fixit et Idaliis oscula plena rosis.
Et sibi sidereos lachrymis suffudit ocellos,
Et clausit nivea lumina functa manu.
Si possent gelido Superi succumbere letho,
Sic ego crediderim Numina velle mori.

“ALIUD.

“KETHE soli coelique decus, non unius uxor
Virtutis specimen, te moriente, dedit.
Luminibus lachrymas libavit et oscula labris,
Dextraque palpebram clausit utramque manus.
Luminibus luctum, labris testatur amorem,
Dextra manus fortem monstrat et esse piam.

1635. William Keith, seventh Earl Marischal.

Married, 1st, Elizabeth, dau. of George, third Earl of Winton, with issue, William (d. in inf.), Mary, (m. Sir James Hope of Hopetoun), Elizabeth (m. Robert, second Viscount Arbuthnott), Jean (m. George, third Baron Banff), Isabel (m. Sir Edward Turner, bart.): 2nd, Anne, dau. of Robert, eighth Earl of Morton. Died 1661. (Dict. Nat. Biog. G. E. C. The Graduation Theses of 1626 are dedicated "Comiti de Keth, optimae spei adolescenti"; those of 1634, "illustr. Com. Maresch. filio natu maximo, unicis nostrarum musarum deliciis"; those of 1658, "Comiti Marischallo, musarum fautori propensissimo". He was a bajan in 1631, infra.)

1661.<sup>1</sup> George Keith, eighth Earl Marischal.

Married, Mary, dau. of George, second Earl of Kinnoul, with issue, William, ninth Earl. Died 1694. (Dedication to Theses of 1669 and 1673. G. E. C.)

1694. William Keith, ninth Earl Marischal.

Married, Mary, dau. of James, fourth Earl of Perth, with issue, George, tenth Earl; James, Marshal Keith, Mary (m. John, sixth Earl of Wigton), Anne (m. Alexander, sixth Earl of Galloway). Died 27th May, 1712. (G. E. C. Bajan in 1676, infra. Founded in 1701 the professorship of Medicine: see Vol. I., p. 381.)

1712. George Keith, tenth and last Earl Marischal.

Attained 1715-16; died (unmarried) at Potsdam, 28th May, 1778. Two portraits in possession of University. (Dict. Nat. Biog. Jacobite Attempt of 1719, Edin., 1895. The Theses of 1708 are dedicated "domino de Keith, celsissimi ac magnanimi herois D. Gulielmi Comitis Marischalli filio primogenito"; those of 1714, "potentissimo heroi comiti Marischallo". The last of the Earls graduated M.A. of his ancestral college in 1712, his younger brother, James, afterwards Marshal Keith, taking the same degree three years later: infra. As to the present representatives of the Earls Marischal, compare the genealogical trees on pp. 4, 87, with the articles, "The heirs of the Keiths," in Scottish Notes and Queries for May, 1894, and September, 1896, where many authorities are quoted; and with G. E. C.'s Complete Peerage.)

On the attainder of the Earls Marischal, their rights of College patronage passed to the Crown, but the Commissions of Visitation in 1716 and 1717 apparently made no provision for the appointment of a Chancellor. In 1727 we find the College petitioning King George II. to nominate as Chancellor his Majesty's second son, William, aged six, who had been created Duke of Cumberland a month before the date of the Petition.

“Unto the King’s Most Excellent Majesty,

“The most humble Petition and Address of the Rector, Principal, Professors and Masters of His Majesty’s Marischall University of Aberdeen.

“May it please Your Majesty.

“We, Your Majesty’s most dutyfull and loyal subjects, haveing the great honour above all other Universitys in the Nation to be immediately under your Royal Patronage, humbly beg leave to represent that this Your Majesty’s University is at great loss by the want of a Chancelour. Wherefor, if it be agreeable to Your Majesty’s Royal Pleasure, we earnestly and unanimously intreat that Your Majesty our Royal Patron would be graciously pleas’d to nominate and constitute His Royal Highness, WILLIAM, DUKE OF CUMBERLAND, Chancelour of this Your University; which will not only signaly honour, but greatly tend to the flourishing thereof. And in evidence of our hearty concurrence, so farr as we are interested, we have presum’d to transmitt a most unanimous commission unto His Royal Highness.

“May God, who has in great mercy to these Kingdoms given Your Majesty peaceable possession of the throne of Your Royal Ancestors, greatly prosper and long preserve Your Majesty with your Royal Consort our Gracious Queen, and all the Royal Branches of Your August Family; by which, under God, the great happyness of these Kingdoms can only be secur’d and transmitted to posterity.

“Given at Your Majesty’s College Marischal of Aberdeen, the twenty-eighth day of August, in the first year of Your Majesty’s Reign.”

“Commission to his highness, William, Duke of Cumberland.

“We, the Rector, Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal University of Aberdeen, takeing into our consideration the great loss this University is at by the want of a Chancelour, and how much it will tend to the honour and flourishing of the same, that some honourable and proper person were elected into the said office, we all did and hereby doe unanimously nominate and elect His Royal Highness the High and Mighty Prince, WILLIAM, DUKE OF CUMBERLAND, Chancelour of this University, which office we most humbly and earnestly intreat His Royal Highness may accept of. And by the tenor of these presents we declare that His Royal Highness shall from henceforth have and enjoy all powers, jurisdiction, and honours which any Chancelour of this University by the Foundation Charter had or might in times past have enjoy’d and exercis’d. Promiseing all subjection and obedience unto His Royal Highness due on our part. In Wittness whereof these present letters haveing the strength of a publick instrument are inscrib’d by us at his Majesty’s Marischall College of Aberdeen, this twenty-ninth day of August, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven years, and of His Majesty’s reign the first year. And for further confirmation we have hereunto appended the great seal of this University.

[Signed] “Patt. Duff, Rector.

“Tho. Blackwell, Principal.

“Matthew Mackaile, Med. Professor.

“Dav. Verner, P.P.

“Daniel Gordon, P.P.

“Wm. Duff, P.P.”

(Marischal College Charter Chest, "Chancellors," 1, 2. The second paper is endorsed :—"This Commission to be in Latine, wrote on parchment and embelish in due form".)

The result of this petition is unknown. The Duke became in 1746 Chancellor of St. Andrews. Kennedy (Annals of Aberdeen, Vol. II., p. 118) gives the Duke of Cumberland as elected Chancellor in 1747, but Kennedy's dates are notoriously inaccurate. See list of Regents, p. 31.

17 ? Archibald Campbell, Earl of Ilay (third Duke of Argyll).

The date of election is not recorded. The duke, an alumnus of the Universities of Glasgow and Utrecht, was created Earl of Ilay in 1706, and succeeded his brother, John, in the dukedom in 1743. In 1716 he was chosen Chancellor of King's College, but "upon weighty motives" did not accept (Off. and Grad., p. 5). Kennedy gives John, Duke of Argyll, as Chancellor in 1754, but his names are only less inaccurate than his dates. Died 15th April, 1761. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1761. John Stuart, third Earl of Bute.

Elected, 25th April, by the Principal and Masters, "taking into consideration that the office of Chancellor of this University is vacant by the death of his Grace the Duke of Argyll". (Minute in new Rectorial Book.) He accepts, 10th August: Latin diploma entered in Minute. ("Writing diploma, £5 5s.; silver seal box, £1 14s.; vellum, 10s. 6d." Accounts.) Benefactor to the Library (Vol. I., p. 454), and to the Observatory (Vol. I., p. 448). A promise to give Natural History specimens to the Museum is mentioned in the Aberdeen Journal of 6th Dec., 1784. Portrait in possession of University: copy after Ramsay by William Mossman in 1763. (£16 16s., with £10 10s. for frame. Accounts.) Died 10th March, 1792. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1793. David Murray, second Earl of Mansfield.

B.A., Oxon., 1748; D.C.L., 1793. Elected 19th April. (Rect. Book: Diploma, £2 2s.) Died 1st Sept., 1796. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1796. William Eden, first Baron Auckland.

M.A., Oxon., 1768. Elected 7th November. (Rect. Book: Diploma, £1 1s.) "Lord Auckland, an English nobleman, who had never even visited Scotland, and was not educated there, was chosen Chancellor solely at the instigation of the Principal, Dr. Brown, whose patron he was, and who had got acquainted with him when holding his Utrecht situation, at which time Auckland was ambassador to the States. The proper Chancellor to have been chosen in 1796 was the Marquis of Huntly, as Professor Copland proposed, and never voted for Lord Auckland. In going after Court patronage, the College fell into a mistake. All the correspondence passed between the Chancellor and Dr. Brown, in letters often not seen by the Faculty. Hence the necessity of the following order: '1811, May 31. Principal Brown to read to the Faculty all letters which he writes in their name, and to lodge copies in the letter book,'—Min." (Knight.) Died 28th May, 1814. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1814. George Gordon, eighth Marquis of Huntly.

Record in Faculty Minute Book, 19th July. Had been called to House of Lords in his father's barony of Gordon, 1807; succeeded as fifth and last Duke of Gordon, 1827. Installed as Chancellor, 22nd December, 1815. (Kennedy's Annals, II., 90. Nobilissimi viri Georgii Marchionis de Huntly Inaugurandi formula atque modus; praecipue Oratio habita a Gulielmo Laurentio Brown, praefecto, Abred., 1816. 1836. Charles Gordon, fifth Duke of Richmond and Lennox.

Record in Faculty Minute Book, 30th June; installed 2nd Sept. On the union of King's and Marischal Colleges became joint Chancellor (with fourth Earl of Aberdeen) of the University of Aberdeen, 15th Sept., 1860; died 21st October, 1860. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

RECTORS AND DEANS OF FACULTY.<sup>1</sup>

1598. Peter Blackburn, the elder, minister of Aberdeen, Dean of Faculty.

Signs feu charter of date 5th Sept., 1598 (Vol. I., p. 76).

1619. Patrick Dun, doctor of medicine, Rector; William Forbes, doctor of divinity, D. of F.

Present at visitation of the College, 31st December, when an ordinance was made "that the College fees payable by the students to the regents should be conform as they were appointed at a visitation in the King's College, viz., <sup>1</sup> For the duties and method of election of the Rector and Dean of Faculty, see the Foundation Charter (Vol. I., pp. 44-58). The Universities (Scotland) Act of 1858, § 10, provided that the Rector of the University of Aberdeen should be elected by the matriculated students "voting according to the present usage in Marischal College". There has thus been preserved in Aberdeen a closer approximation to early academic usage than in the other Scottish Universities, for in Aberdeen alone the Rector is still chosen by four procurators, elected previously by the Nations. In Glasgow the Nations do not elect procurators, but vote directly for the Rector; in St. Andrews the Nations were abolished by Ordinance No. 4 of the 1858 Commission; in Edinburgh they never existed.

"The definition of the Nations given in the Charter does not, in some respects, correspond to what has been long followed in practice. The nation to which foreigners are to be assigned is not mentioned; it has been the custom to add them to the Angusians, or those born south of the Carn o' Month. The word diocesis employed in the Charter evidently indicates the true division. The Abredonensis diocesis is divided into the Marriensis and Buchanensis. Marriensis has Garioch added to it, and comprehends not only the tract between the Dee and the Don, but also Alford, Strathdon, and Garioch, or all to the south of Formartin; it also includes the parishes of Strachan, Banchory-Ternan, Banchory-Devenick, and Maryculter, in the county of Kincardine, but in the diocese of Aberdeen. Buchanensis ought to include Buchan, Formartin, and Strathbogie, or those parts of the Counties of Aberdeen and Banff lying between the Deveron on the West and North, and Mar and Garioch on the South, exclusive of all that part of Scotland not included in the two foregoing divisions, lying to the North of the Mons Grampius (Carn o' Month), which contains the Moraviensis. But as the parishes of Huntly, Gartly, Rhynie and Essie, Glass, and Cairnie were not within the diocese of Aberdeen, they ought to be included in the Moraviensis; and Formartin is by custom taken in with Mar, Buchan being viewed as having the Ythan for its Southern boundary." (Knight, circa 1840.)

twenty merks for the sons of noblemen and barons, ten pound for the sons of other gentlemen, and the bursars and poor scholars to be taught gratis". (Memorials relating to Union of Colleges, Aberd., 1755, p. 24.) Dun had been Professor of Logic in 1610, and became Principal in 1621, infra. Forbes had been Professor of Logic in 1601, and became Principal in 1620, infra.

1625. William Forbes, Rector.

Graduation Theses dedicated to him in this capacity, infra.

1632. William Forbes; John Forbes, doctor, D. of F.

Sign a deed, 14th April, constituting Principal Dun common procurator of the College (Ch. Ch. "Rectors," 2.) The D. of F. is probably the contemporary Professor of Divinity at King's College. (Off. and Grad., p. 68.)

1642. William Guild.

Elected "Rector of King Charles' Universitie of Aberdeen," 11th Nov. (Off. and Grad., p. 10.)

1643. William Guild.

Re-elected 23rd November.

1648. David Lindsay.

Signs as Rector a discharge of Marischal College accounts. Minister of Belhelvie. Seems to have been Rector of King's College, 1645-50. (Off. and Grad., p. 11.) The Caroline Union, though not referred to in the elections, doubtless subsisted during that period.

1664. Arthur Rose; Lewis Gordon, M.D., D. of F.

This being the first election recorded in the old Rectorial Minute Book (part of Album I.), the minutes are quoted verbatim.

1827. Sir James McGrigor; Duncan Davidson of Tillychety, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Bannerman, Alexander Brown, lord provost; John Gordon of Craigmile, Alexander Crombie of Phesdo. Mar voted for Joseph Hume. "The most tumultuous election, chiefly from a party of divinity students. See the investigation, in the Minute Book, on two of them, John and Daniel Mackenzie, who attempted to force their way violently into the Hall before the election was over" (Knight). A portrait of Sir James McGrigor by Dyce, subscribed for by the students of 1826-27, and now in the possession of the University, is reproduced in this volume.

1828. Joseph Hume; Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Bannerman, Alexander Brown, Thomas Bannerman, merchant; Major Leith Hay, younger of Rannes. Angus voted for Sir James McGrigor. Portrait of Hume in possession of University.

1829. Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Bannerman, Thomas Gordon of Cairness, Thomas Burnett, advocate, Aberdeen; John Thurburn of Murtle. No Rector. Mar and Buchan voted for Sir James McGrigor, Angus and Moray for Joseph Hume. There being no precedent or rule in the Charter, the whole case was referred to the Commissioners of Visitation then sitting. (Evidence, Vol. IV., pp. 298-301.) The Commissioners recommended a new election, but declined to grant a warrant for holding this on any day other than March 1. On the advice of the Chancellor no new election was held. (Coll. Minutes, Sept. 7, Nov. 7, Dec. 25.) The election proceedings of 1829 were very disorderly. "During nearly an hour amid great clamour and noises of various kinds, short speeches were made by different students. . . . An attempt was made by a considerable number of the students to force their way into the hall where the Senatus were sitting; which attempt was repelled by the Professors." (Minutes.) Hume claimed the right as Rector of the preceding year to have a casting vote, which he proposed to give to his opponent, but the Senatus unanimously disallowed this. See also Letters addressed to the students of Marischal College, by Joseph Hume, M.P., Aberd., 1829.

1830. Sir Charles Forbes, bart.; Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors: Gavin Hadden, lord provost; Charles Bannerman of Crimon-mogate, Alexander Crombie of Phesdo, Basil Fisher of Devanha. Moray voted for Sir Walter Scott.

1831. William, 17th Earl of Erroll ; Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors : Basil Fisher, James Hadden, lord provost ; Thomas Gordon of Cairness, Thomas Burnett, advocate. " Election quiet. Hume's party again bring forward Sir Walter Scott, in order to divide, but it was a failure, not one nation voting for Joseph " (Knight). " Dec. 10, Dean of Faculty has a duel with Anderson of Candacraig. Damage 0 " (Knight).

1832. Sir Michael Bruce of Stenhouse, bart. ; Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors : Basil Fisher, James Hadden, Alexander Bannerman, James Blaikie, advocate, Aberdeen. Moray voted for Sir James McIntosh [sic in Rectorial Minutes, but McGrigor according to Knight]. " Hume not even proposed as a candidate."

1833. Sir Charles Forbes of Newe and Edinglassie, bart. ; Duncan Davidson, D. of F.

Assessors, by a majority : Gavin Hadden, lord provost ; Alexander Bannerman, M.P. ; Rev. Dr. George Forbes of Blelack, Patrick Davidson, advocate. Moray voted for Francis Jeffrey, lord advocate.

1834. Alexander Bannerman, M.P. ; James Blaikie, lord provost, D. of F.

Assessors : James Blaikie, Thomas Bannerman, Dean of Guild ; Benjamin Williamson, surgeon ; Robert Abercrombie, merchant. The procurators claimed to be allowed to vote in the election of Dean of Faculty, but this was disallowed. Professor Knight protested against the elections on this occasion for reasons which are entered at length.

1835. John Abercrombie, M.D., Edinburgh ; James Blaikie, D. of F.

Assessors : James Blaikie, Basil Fisher of Devanha, James Andrew Sandilands of Cruives, Alexander Jopp, advocate. Mar voted for Alexander Bannerman. Professor Knight again protests. Dr. Abercrombie's Rectorial Address, delivered November 5, on The Culture and Discipline of the Mind, has been frequently reprinted. " The noise very moderate. Next day he gave a dinner to sixty in the Rooms, and afterwards £50 for prizes. On the 8th the Principal and professors accompanied him twice to the College Gallery in the Greyfriars " (Knight). See Letter to the students of Marischal College on the election of Lord Rector, Aberd., 1835. Dr. Abercrombie was M.A. of 1798.

1836. John Abercrombie ; James Blaikie, D. of F.

Assessors : James Blaikie, Alexander Webster, advocate ; Middleton Rettie, merchant ; James Harper, baillie.

1837. John, Lord Lyndhurst ; Alexander Bannerman, M.P., D. of F.

Assessors : Hon. William Gordon, M.P. ; James Hadden of Persley, Major General [the Hon.] Hugh Arbuthnott, M.P. ; Henry Lumsden of Tilwhilly. Mar voted for John Abercrombie, M.D., and Moray for John C. Colquhoun of Killermont.

1838. Henry, Lord Brougham and Vaux ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : Alexander Crombie of Phesdo, LL.D. ; John Abercrombie, M.D. ; John Gerard of Midstrath, Major Cumming Bruce of Roseisle. Buchan voted for Lord Lyndhurst, and Moray for John C. Colquhoun. 108 students protest and appeal to the Chancellor, who declines to interfere.

1839. John Campbell Colquhoun of Killermont ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : Sir George Sinclair of Ulbster, James Hadden of Persley, Hon. William Gordon, M.P. ; Hugh Lumsden of Pitcaple. The Rectorial address, delivered November 27, was printed in Glasgow.

1840. Sir George Sinclair of Ulbster, bart. ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : Hon. William Gordon, M.P. ; Sir William Seton of Pitmedden, Hugh Lumsden of Pitcaple, Thomas Blaikie, lord provost.

1841. Sir James McGrigor, bart. ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : Thomas Blaikie, Alexander Ewing, M.D. ; Alexander Thomson of Banchory, Sir Robert Abercromby of Forglen, 5th bart. Moray voted for the Hon. Fox Maule.

1842. Sir John Herschel ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : George Dempster of Skibo, James Gordon of Craig, Hon. William Gordon, M.P. ; Robert Simpson of Cobairdy. Mar voted for Sir Jas. McGrigor, Moray for the Hon. Fox Maule. Angry protests against the action of Professors Brown and Lizars, who, when the vote in the Angus Nation was stated to be 17 to 16 in favour of the procurator representing Sir John Herschel, proffered their votes on the side of the minority, although it never was "the custom for professors to vote at the Rectorial elections, the only exception being that of one professor who had given in his suffrage once or twice several years ago".

1843. John, 2nd Marquis of Breadalbane ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : Lord Haddo, Sir William Seton, bart. ; Andrew Rutherford, advocate ; Alexander Thomson of Banchory. Buchan voted for Sir James McGrigor.

1844. Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : not mentioned, as the meeting "unanimously find there is no election" of Rector. Mar and Angus voted for the Marquis of Breadalbane, Buchan and Moray for the Marquis of Bute.

1845. Archibald Alison ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors : John Farquharson of Haughton, Thomas Blaikie, lord provost ; Thomas Abercrombie Duff of Haddo, William P. Alison, M.D., Edinburgh. The Rector was made LL.D.

1846. Archibald Alison ; Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors: John Farquharson, Thomas Blaikie, Alexander Thomson of Banchory, Captain Fordyce of Brucklay.

1847. Alexander Bannerman, D. of F.

Assessors: as last year. No Rector elected, Mar and Buchan voting for the Earl of Rosse, Angus and Moray for Thomas Babington Macaulay. The meeting resolved to enquire whether the late Rector has a casting vote.

1848. Patrick Robertson, Lord Robertson ; Sir Michael Bruce, bart., D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Thomson, George Thompson, lord provost ; Alexander Forbes of Blackford, C. G. Robertson, sheriff substitute of Kincardine. The Rector was made LL.D. The Rectorial address was printed at Aberdeen, 1848. See also "A chapter showing how Lord P—— became our rector," by P. C. B[ea-ton] in Fraser's Magazine for July, 1863.

1849. John Thomson Gordon, sheriff depute of Edinburgh ; Sir Michael Bruce, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Forbes, Lord James Hay, Alexander Dingwall Fordyce, M.P. ; William Watson, sheriff-substitute of Aberdeen. Buchan voted for Lord Robertson. Charles Dickens had been asked to allow himself to be nominated, and his reply has been preserved.

"BRIGHTON, Tuesday Evening, 20th February, 1849.

"SIR,—I beg to assure you that I am very sensible of the feeling which has induced you to propose me as a candidate for the Lord Rectorship of your College, and that I feel much beholden to you for that mark of your regard and consideration.

"But, in reply to your note in which you do me the favour to ask my consent to this nomination, I am constrained to say, without any reservation whatever, that I do not aspire to the high honour in question, and that I must entreat you to withdraw my name at my express desire. I take the earliest opportunity in my power of making this communication to you ; but my absence from town for a week past, and my absence from this place during this day, have combined to prevent my answering your letter sooner. It was forwarded here this morning. I am, Sir, yours faithfully and obliged,

"CHARLES DICKENS."

The Rectorial Address, delivered 23rd March, was printed at Aberdeen in 1849, as also an Address, delivered 8th November, at the opening of session 1849-50.

1850. John Thomson Gordon ; Sir Michael Bruce, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Forbes, Alexander Dingwall Fordyce, William Watson, George Thompson, lord provost. Thomas Carlyle had been asked to allow himself to be nominated. His characteristic reply has been preserved.

"5 CHEYNE ROW, CHELSEA,

"LONDON, 22 feb", 1850.

"GENTLEMEN,—Your announcement very much surprised me, not surely in an unpleasant way, and I beg in the meantime to thank you very cordially, you and my other young Friends in Aberdeen, for the honour you are doing me. The election to a merely formal office, I suppose, may go in this way or that, without momentous consequences; but the fact that ingenuous young souls in your University, in poor old Scotland far away, are loyally disposed to me, and willing to testify that feeling by such methods as they have—this is already a possession, of a valuable and to me almost of an affecting nature, which I shall not have to part with. With the election itself I must not in the least interfere, for or against. In respect of personally visiting Aberdeen, too, I am constrained to say that travelling is at all times very untowardly to me, and that at present there are some special causes rather detaining me here;—on the whole, that if there be no real duty, but only a formal or ceremonial one, to be done in Aberdeen, I had much better not come, but that if there do appear some real fraction of duty to be done, in the event of my election, I will certainly make an effort to come. More I cannot say at present. And so with many thanks and kind regards, I remain, Gentlemen, your most obed<sup>t</sup>

"T. CARLYLE.

"To Messrs. Thomson & Harper, Divinity Students, etc."

Fifteen years later Carlyle was elected Rector of his own university of Edinburgh.

1851. Archibald, 13th Earl of Eglinton; Sir Michael Bruce, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Forbes, John Cowan, sheriff of Kincardine; George Henry, lord provost; Alexander Currie, sheriff of Banff. The Rectorial Address, delivered 23rd March, was printed at Aberdeen, 1851. Tennyson had been asked to allow himself to be nominated, but declined.

1852. Archibald, Earl of Eglinton; Alexander Thomson of Banchory, D. of F.

Assessors: George Henry, Alexander Currie, William Watson, Sir Michael Bruce, bart. Lord Eglinton was chosen Rector of Glasgow University in the same year.

1853. George, 7th Earl of Carlisle; Alexander Thomson, D. of F.

Assessors: George Henry, William Watson, George Thompson, M.P.; Sir James Carnegie of Southesk, 6th bart. The Rector was made LL.D., 30th March. The Rectorial Address, delivered 31st March, was printed at Aberdeen, 1853.

1854. Colonel W. H. Sykes, M.P.; Alexander Thomson, D. of F.

Assessors: Alexander Innes of Cowie, Thomas Blaikie, lord provost; Archibald Davidson, sheriff depute of Aberdeen; Robert Grant of Tillyfour. Moray voted for the Earl of Carlisle. The Rectorial Address, delivered 30th March, was printed at Aberdeen, 1854.

1855. Austin Henry Layard, M.P.; Alexander Thomson, D. of F.
Assessors: Thomas Blaikie, Sir John Ogilvy, bart., of Baldovan, Alexander Innes of Cowie, Sir James Carnegie. Angus voted for Colonel Sykes.
1856. Austin Henry Layard; Sir John Forbes, physician to the Queen's household, D. of F.
Assessors: Sir Thomas Blaikie, Sir John Ogilvy, William Stirling of Keir, M.P.; Provost Gray of Peterhead. The Rector was made LL.D. on 21st March.
1857. Sir John Forbes, D. of F.
Assessors: Sir John Ogilvie, William Stirling, John Webster, lord provost; Alexander Kilgour, M.D., Aberdeen. No Rector elected, Mar and Buchan voting for A. H. Layard, Angus and Moray for James, 8th Earl of Elgin.
1858. Philip, 5th Earl Stanhope; Alexander Thomson, D. of F.
Assessors: William Stirling, John Webster, Alexander Kilgour, James Dyce Nicol of Ballogie. Moray voted for M. E. Grant Duff, younger of Eden (Rector of Aberdeen University, 1866-72). Alexander Thomson was elected by a majority of ten votes to four for Alexander Henderson of Caskieben [founded chair of Med. Jurispr. 1857]. The Rectorial Address, delivered 25th March, was printed at Aberdeen, 1858.
1859. David, 7th Earl of Airlie; Sir Thomas Blaikie, D. of F.
Assessors: John Webster, Alexander Kilgour, James Dyce Nicol, Rev. James Fraser, Aberdeen. Thackeray and Carlyle were nominated for the Rectorship. At the election for D. of F., Alexander Thomson was proposed, and being present claimed a right not only to vote for himself, but to act as chairman of the meeting, and to declare himself elected. This claim was afterwards withdrawn. The Rectorial Address, delivered 17th March, was printed at Aberdeen, 1859.
1860. David, Earl of Airlie; Alexander Stronach, advocate, D. of F.
Assessors: as last year.

1593. Robert Howie.

One of the ministers of Aberdeen. Witnesses the Foundation Charter (Vol. I., p. 59), and is Principal in the same year (p. 92). Had studied at King's College, at Herborn, and at Basel. Translated to be minister of Dundee, 1598; Principal of St. Mary's College, St. Andrews, 1607; Commissioner for visiting the Universities of Aberdeen, 1619; demitted St. And. Principalship, 1639. Author of De aeterna Dei praedestinatione, Basil, 1591; also (according to Cat. of Scot. Writ.) of De reconciliatione hominis cum Deo; De conjunctione fidelium cum Christo; De justificatione hominis coram Deo. Arms on old heraldic ceiling (Vol. I., p. 118): Or, a chevron azure between three owlets sable. (Scott's Fasti; Wodrow's Biog. Coll., ed. Lippe; Gordon's MS. Coll.; Aberd. Town Council Reg.)

1598. Gilbert Gray.

M.A. Edin., 1592. Had also studied at King's College, and at Heidelberg. Died 1614; buried 29th December. "An oratio funebris is pronounced upon Mr Gilbert Gray late Principal of the Marischal College, anno 1615 by one of his schollars, when he was receiving the laurea magisterialis. See this oration in manuscript. [Not now extant.] From it he appears to have been born in Aberdeen, connected by father and mother with the best burghers of the town: Alexander Rutherford, provost, his mother's brother; Alexander Cullen, provost, Mr Alexander Cullen his son, Paul Menzies, Walter Menzies, Thomas Forbes, and William Gray, being all his sister and brother bairns. . . . He was remarkably diligent and besides keeping his hours strictly, he frequently gave public lectures, where students of divinity and physic, as well as the other masters attended. The author . . . commends in highflown terms his diligence in teaching, his modesty, his wisdom, his acuteness in disputation and above all his religious turn of mind" (Gordon). Author of Oratio funebris in memoriam Duncani Liddellii, Edin., 1614; Oratio de illustribus Scotiae scriptoribus, Abred., 1623 (reprinted by Mackenzie). Arms on old ceiling: Gules, a lion rampant within a bordure engrailed or. (Dict. Nat. Biog. New Spald. Club Misc., I.)

1616. Andrew Aedie.

On Gray's death, the Town Council suggested two names to the Earl Marischal, Patrick Sands (then a regent in Edinburgh), and Alexander Home and the former was nominated (Vol. I., pp. 167-8), but apparently did not accept, as Aedie is styled Principal on 15th March, 1616, "recommended by the King to the Earl Marshal" (Gordon). Demitted office 1619. Author of Pastoria in decem distributa eclogas, Dantisc., 1610; Tractatus de noctambulorum ingenio, Dantisc., 1612; Clavis philosophiae moralis, Oppenh., 1614. Arms on old ceiling: Argent, a mullet between three cross-crosslets fitchée gules. (Irving's Lives. Gordon's MS.)

1620. William Forbes.

D.D., St. And., and one of the ministers of Aberdeen (Vol. I., pp. 186-7). Mr. Andrew Ramsay, minister at Edinburgh, was "socht" by the Earl Marischal, but his "transplantatioun was altogidder refuissit". Forbes had been a regent, infra. He demitted office in 1621, was Rector in 1632, and in 1634 became first bishop of Edinburgh. Author of Considerationes modestae, various edns. Portrait by Jamesone in possession of University, reproduced in Wodrow's Biog. Coll., ed. Lippe. Arms on old ceiling: Azure, three bear's heads coupéd argent. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1621. Patrick Dun.

M.D., Basil. (Kennedy); "a verie famous professor in Germanie" (Buik of Reg.). Previously regent, infra, rector, supra; and mediciner at King's Coll. (Off. and Grad., p. 35). A native of Aberdeen (son of umquhile Andrew Dun, burgess), Dun was the first lay principal. A benefactor of the College (Vol. I., p. 231, where his arms, from the ceiling, are given). Died circa 1649. Author of Themata medica de dolore colico, Basil, 1607; and editor of Duncan Liddell's Ars conservandi sanitatem, Aberd., 1651. Portrait by Jamesone in possession of Grammar School, reproduced in Vol. I. (Strachan's Panegyricus; Smith's Oratio; Gordon's MS.)

1649. William Moir.

Previously professor of Mathematics, infra, which post he was allowed to retain with the principalship, 20th June, 1649 (T. C. Reg., liii., 222). Resigned both offices in 1661. "He wrote on Geometry and the mechanical part of Mathematicks" (Cat. of Scot. Writ.). Portrait in possession of University. Arms on ceiling: Azure, three moor's heads coupéd proper.

1661. James Leslie.

Bajan, 1636. M.D. "After his travells in France and the Low Countries, he came home to Abd., and wes called to be physitian to the toune be the Counsell thereof" (Buik of Reg.). Author of 'Ο 'Αστήρ 'Ορθρινὸς 'Απολάμπει, Aberd., 1661. Arms on ceiling: Argent, on a fess between a mullet in chief and a tulip in base vert, three buckles of the field [?]. (Family of Leslie, III., 409.)

1678, Nov. 21. Robert Paterson.

Previously regent and librarian, infra. The latter office, then the best paid in the College, he continued to hold (Vol. I., p. 204). His nomination by the Earl Marischal to the principalship, vacant "throw Master James Leslie his removal from the said charge," is the first entry in the Register of Presentations. Children: Mr. David, Robert, Elisabeth, Margrat, Agnes, Mary, Issobell, Cathren. (Poll Book.) Erected heraldic ceiling (Vol. I., p. 118), in which his own arms appear as: Argent, three pelicans in their piety proper; on a chief azure as many mullets of the field; a mitre azure for difference. Died 1717. Portrait in possession of University.

1717, Sept. 30. Thomas Blackwell.

D.D. Previously professor of Divinity, infra, and minister of Grey Friars Church, Aberdeen, which offices he retained, being the only professor not ejected by the Commission of Visitation. His appointment to the principalship was the first nomination by the Crown, the Earl Marischal forfeiting his rights of patronage with his title. Died 1728. Author of Ratio sacra, Edin., 1710; Schema sacrum, Edin., 1710; Forma sacra, Bost., 1774; Methodus evangelica, Lond., 1712. Portrait in possession of Incorporated Trades, Aberdeen, of which body he was fifth Patron. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1728, June 8. John Osborn.

M.A., 1708; D.D. One of the ministers of Aberdeen. He retained both offices till his death on 19th Aug., 1748. Portrait by Alexander in possession of Incorporated Trades, Aberdeen, of which body he was sixth Patron. (Reg. of Pres.; Scott's Fasti.)

1748, Nov. 9. Thomas Blackwell, the younger.

M.A., 1718; LL.D., King's Coll., 1752. Previously Professor of Greek, infra, which office he retained. The magistrates had recommended Professor Robert Pollock to the Crown (T. C. Reg., lxi., 234, 350). "Principal Blackwell brought on a consumptive habit by great abstemiousness and died at Edinburgh on his way to London, 8th March, 1757, in his 56th year. . . . His religious opinions were said to be inclined to heretical. . . . His nickname among the students 'Ratio profana'" (Knight). His widow was a benefactor (Vol. I., p. 461). Author of Enquiry into life and writings of Homer, Lond., 1735, etc.; Proofs of ditto, Lond., 1747; Letters concerning Mythology, Lond., 1748; Memoirs of the court of Augustus, Edin., 1758-63, etc. (Dict. Nat. Biog.; Campbell Fraser's Berkeley, Vol. IV.)

1757, April 19. Robert Pollock.

D.D., 1753. Previously Professor of Divinity, infra, and minister of Grey Friars, which offices he retained. Died 1759. Had married, 1747, Elizabeth, daughter of Provost Alex. Robertson of Glasgowe. Portraits of himself and his wife in possession of University.

1759, Aug. 14. George Campbell.

M.A., 1738; D.D., King's Coll., 1764. One of the ministers of Aberdeen, which office he retained until 1771, when he was appointed Professor of Divinity and minister of Grey Friars. Demitted the chair 2nd June, 1795, and the Principalship 18th Jan., 1796; died 6th Apr., 1796. Had married Grace

Farquharson: no issue. His works are well known. Portrait by Arch. Robertson, in possession of the Incorporated Trades (of which body he was tenth Patron), reproduced in the great window, Mitchell Hall, Mar. Coll., and in this volume. Copy by Sir George Reid in possession of University. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1796, Jan. 26. William Laurence Brown.

M.A., St. And., 1772; D.D., St. And., and Utrecht. Had been appointed to the chair of Divinity and the Grey Friars charge by the Town Council, 15th June, 1795 (T. C. Reg., lxvii., 70). Previously Professor of Moral Philosophy and the Law of Nations at Utrecht, where he had been a student. Died 11th May, 1830. Married his uncle's daughter, Anne Elizabeth Brown, 29th May, 1756, with issue, William Robert, Laurence George, Catherine Mary Ann, Johanna Elizabeth (called Janet), Robert James (afterwards Prof. of Greek), Ann Elizabeth (called Nancy), John Moore, Helen Jane, George Gilbert (M.D., 1825). His numerous writings have been frequently catalogued. (Dict. Nat. Biog. MS. Widow's Fund Reg.)

1832, Apr. 12. Daniel Dewar.

M.A., Edin., 1815; LL.D., Glasg., 1815. Previously Professor of Moral Philosophy at King's Coll. (Off. and Grad., p. 65), and Minister of Grey Friars, Aberdeen, and of Tron Church, Glasgow. The Senatus had petitioned the Crown in favour of Professor Glennie, and unanimously expressed disapproval of Dr. Dewar's appointment. Prof. of Church History, 1833, infra. Demitted office on the union of the Universities in 1860. Died 28th May, 1867. Had married, 17th Oct., 1821, Susan Place, with issue, Ann Gordon (m. John McCunn), Catherine Mary (m. Prof. James Clerk Maxwell), Susan Place, Edward Place, William Gordon, Donald, John. Author of sundry theological works. (Bruce's Aberdeen Pulpit; Widow's Fund MS. Reg.)

16 ? Patrick Gray.

Not in Kennedy's list. Signs assedations to James Menzies, 4th Sept., 1601 ; and to Alexander Molleson, 14th September, 1601. (Buik of Reg.)<sup>2</sup> Brother of Principal Gilbert Gray. (Dedication to Theses of 1673, infra.)

1602.<sup>3</sup> William Forbes.

Not in Kennedy's list. Stated in Sydserf's Life to have been appointed Professor of Logic (i.e., teacher of the Semi class) soon after his graduation in 1601, and to have taught for four sessions. Mentioned in Aberdeen Presbytery Records, 1st November, 1605 ; and in Principal Gilbert Gray's Rental of 1606. (Vol. I., p. 107.) Afterwards Principal, p. 28.

1603. Thomas Reid.

Not in Kennedy's list. Demits office of teacher in Grammar School on appointment as Regent, 12th October, 1603. (T. C. Reg., xli., 415.) Afterwards Secretary "for the Latine tongue" to James VI., and a benefactor to the College Library. (Vol. I., p. 194.) Portrait in possession of the University is reproduced in Vol. I., and in the great window. Mitchell Hall, Mar. Coll. A detailed list of Reid's writings will be found in the present editor's notice in Dict. Nat. Biog. See also Scottish N. and Q., IX., 145, 161.

<sup>1</sup> Three in number by the Foundation Charter (Vol. I., p. 42) ; a fourth was added in 1620, when the Principal ceased to teach the highest class (p. 186). Originally the regents were professors in the modern sense (p. 64), but this system was abandoned about 1642. (Cf. Off. and Grad., p. 315.) It was, however, resumed in 1753, infra. No record of presentation to regencies is extant before 1679 : the earlier names have been collected from various sources, and the list is obviously imperfect. Kennedy gives 29 regents, "with the dates of their several admissions," from 1593 to 1676, but at least 25 of his 29 dates are wrong ! A table showing the sequence of teaching is attempted in the Appendix.

<sup>2</sup> When a name is stated to appear anywhere, what is implied is that it is mentioned as being that of a Regent.

<sup>3</sup> "[Andrew] Young, having graduated in Edinburgh, had gone to serve as regent in Marischal College, which was always a good School of Mathematics. . . . He came back to Edinburgh as regent in 1601." Sir Alexander Grant (Story of the Univ. of Edinb., II., 293), quoting from Professor Chrystal's Inaugural Address. Dr. Chrystal writes that he cannot recall his authority for this statement. "Marischal" is probably a slip for "King's". (Cf. Off. and Grad., p. 53.)

16 ? Andrew Keith.

Not in Kennedy's list. Mentioned in Reg. Priv. Coun., Vol. VII., p. 677, 10th June, 1607.

16 ? Patrick Dun.

Not in Kennedy's list. Mentioned, 1610, as Professor of Logic in MS. C<sup>2</sup> 3. 70, University Library. Probably succeeded Forbes in his chair, as he afterwards (1621) did in the Principalship, p. 28.

16 ? William Gray.

Not in Kennedy's list. Signs assedation to John Leslie, 13th November, 1613. (Buik of Reg.) Bajan, 1605.

16 ? Peter Blackburn.

Mentioned in T. C. Reg., xlvii., 487, 15th March, 1616, together with John Ross and Adam Reid. Kennedy gives Peter Blackburn, John Row, and David Reid as regents in 1593. This is manifestly a group of blunders. (Cf. Kennedy's MS. Index to the T. C. Reg., s.v. "College".) Peter Blackburn, afterwards Bishop of Aberdeen, signs the Foundation Charter as a witness in 1593, and is Dean of Faculty in 1598, p. 10, but there is no proof that he acted as Regent. He died 14th June, 1616. Author (acc. to Scott's Fasti) of a Treatise against James Gordon the Jesuit. The Regent of 1616 seems to have been his son (Spald. Club Misc., Vol. V., p. 140; and Retours of Services of Heirs, 17th July, 1616), who appears as a Semi of 1605, and died in 1619. (Retours, 30th November, 1619.)

16 ? Adam Reid.

Ut supra. Given by Kennedy under 1619, in which year he was promoted from a regency to be Minister of Methlic. He was younger brother of Secretary Reid above mentioned. (Scott's Fasti.) Bajan, 1609.

16 ? John Ross.

Ut supra; and signs appointment of a Liddell Bursar, 3rd June, 1616. (Buik of Reg.) Semi, 1605.

1616. John Gordon.

Not in Kennedy's list. Must have succeeded Blackburn, as (together with John Ross and Adam Reid) he signs assedation to Patrick Symmers, December, 1616. See also letter from the laird of Drum. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., "Bursaries," XXIII., 1.) Mentioned (with Reid) in precept of warning against Menzies, 3rd April, 1617; and (with Reid and Massie) in decret against Menzies, 29th June, 1619. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. Mass II., Nos. 42, 47.) Bajan, 1609.

16 ? George Chalmers.

"Mr. George Chalmers, Minister at Dumbennan, burges of this burght, and sumtyme one of the Ministers thair of and regent in the said College." (T. C. Reg., xlix., 418, 27th October, 1619.) Kennedy, misinterpreting this entry, gives George Chalmers as regent in 1619. It is remarkable that no such name occurs in the list of incumbents of Aberdeen charges given in Scott's Fasti. (Cf. P. H. Chalmers' Mem. of Information.)

16 ? Andrew Massie.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1623, but is mentioned in decret against Menzies, 1619. Signs as "Logicae Professor" (i.e., teacher of the Semi class), two Epitaphs in the Lachrymae sub Obitum Georgii Comitis Mariscalli, Abred., 1623; and 6th April, 1626 (together with Ogston, Sibbald, and Wedderburn), an assedation to David Anderson. (Buik of Reg.) Andrew Massie is named as Oeconomus in a Burgh Court Decree of 19th February, 1622. By the Foundation Charter the Oeconomus was an official distinct from the Regents. James Forbes of Tulliboy was appointed first Oeconomus, 18th June, 1593. (T. C. Reg., xxxiv., 854.) Massie and Sibbald are made burgesses, "ex gratia," 25th Oct., 1623. (New Spald. Cl. Misc., I.) Bajan, 1610.

1619. William Ogston.

Not in Kennedy's list. Appointed in 1619, as in 1626, when he is transferred to the Semi class, it is stated that he has taught the Tertians "thir sewin yeeris bygane". In the latter year (apparently succeeding Andrew Massie), he received a presentation to the Logic professorship, "the key of the whole College and the coursse throu verie long and thairfoir requyring ane learned diligent and cairfull maister to teach the same . . . quhairin if he should be found to be deficient and after due admoni<sup>n</sup>is not amending then and in that caise the said Mr. William to be bound . . . to demit the said second class absolutelie and to tak him to the third class". (Min. of Admission, 25th October, 1626. Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. "Professorships," No. 1.) Designated "Philosophiae Moralis Professor" (i.e., teacher of the Tertian class) on the title-page of his Oratio Funebris in Obitum Georgii Mariscalli Comitis, Abred., 1623; and 6th April, 1626, signs the assedation to David Anderson. Promoted to be minister of Hailes, 1635. (Hist. of Ogston Families.) Semi, 1605. D.D.

1620. James Sibbald.

M.A., 1618. Signs as "Philosophiae Naturalis Professor," an Epitaph in the Lachrymae, also the assedation to David Anderson, 1626. The Professor of Natural Philosophy taught the Magistrand class, and Sibbald was the first holder of the office of fourth regent, instituted 1st March, 1620, when the newly appointed Principal, William Forbes, was relieved from the duty of teaching. Kennedy gives 1619 as the date of Sibbald's appointment, but this is certainly wrong. Graduation theses maintained under his presidency are extant for the years 1623 (Abd. Univ. Libr.), 1625 (Bodl.), 1626 (Bodl.). In the last of these years he was appointed one of the Ministers of Aberdeen. B.D., King's Coll., 1627; D.D., 1628. Sibbald was one of the "Aberdeen Doctors". In addition to his graduation theses, he contributed a Sermon to Forbes' Funerals and wrote Diverse Select Sermons, printed posthumously at Aberdeen in 1658. (Scott's Fasti; Forbes' Funerals, ed. 1845.)

16 ? William Wedderburn.

Signs as "Graecarum Literarum Professor" (i.e., teacher of the Bajan class), verses in the Lachrymae and the Theses of 1623; also the assedation to David Anderson, 1626. Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Bethelny, not later than 1633. (Scott's Fasti.) He was brother of David Wedderburn, the Rector of the Grammar School (Abd. and Bff. Coll., p. 60), and Alexander Wedderburn.

1626. John Seton.

M.A., 1616. Succeeded Sibbald in 1626 (Kennedy says 1636) as Professor of Natural Philosophy. As such, signs (together with Gordon, Aidie, and Ray) a Rectorial minute, 14th April, 1632 (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. "Rectors," 2); and (with the same three) is mentioned in a summons raised by Sir A. Irvine of Drum, 1633. Graduation theses maintained under his presidency are extant for the years 1627 (Bodl.), 1630 (Bodl.), 1631 (Abd.), 1634 (Bodl.), 1637 (Bodl.). Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Kemnay, not later than 1641. (Scott's Fasti.)

16 ? Hugh Gordon.

M.A., 1623. Not in Kennedy's list. Writes assedation to A. Burnet, 12th July, 1630. (Buik of Reg.) Signs as Professor of Logic the Rectorial minute, and is mentioned in summons ut supra. See also Diary of Alexander Jaffray, p. 15.

163 ? William Aidie.

M.A., 1625. Not in Kennedy's list. Succeeded Wedderburn. Signs as Professor of Greek the Rectorial minute; also two Epitaphs in the Lachrymae in Obitum Wilhelmi Comitis Marischalli, Abred., 1635. Appears as witness to a Sasine in 1644. (Burgh Reg. of Sasines.)

163 ? John Ray.

M.A., 1625. Given by Kennedy under year 1641; but signs as Professor of Moral Philosophy (i.e., teacher of the tertian class), the Rectorial minute; also an Epitaph in the second Lachrymae, 1635; and a discharge of College accounts, 1st November, 1648. The Graduation theses of 1643, maintained under his presidency, are extant in the University Library; so that ere then the system of specialist professors must have been abandoned, and that of circulating regents introduced. Editor of Cicero's Epistolarum libri IV., Abred., 1630, 1665. "He made an excellent funeral Oration on King Charles the Martyr." (Cat. Scot. Writ. Spald., II., 142.)

163 ? William Blackhall.

M.A., 1631. Not in Kennedy's list. Signs as Professor of Logic an Epitaph in the second Lachrymae, 1635. Evidently succeeded Hugh Gordon. Deposed as a Catholic, 1642. (Spald., II., 102. Gordon's Scots Aff., III., 129.)

16 ? James Hay.

Given by Kennedy under year 1636. But Aidie, Blackhall, Ray, and Seton were then still in office. Tertian, 1618 [?].

16 ? John Menzies.

Promoted from a regency to the chair of Divinity, infra, and the second ministerial charge in Aberdeen, 1649, and to the incumbency of Greyfriars Church in the following year. Kennedy gives his name under the year 1633, but this cannot be correct, as in 1635-37 the four regencies were undoubtedly held by Aidie, Blackhall, Ray, and Seton. (Scott's Fasti.) Bajan, 1638 [?].

16 ? Andrew Youngson.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1645, but this is certainly wrong, for on 4th Oct., 1644, "Mr. Andrew Youngson, formerly a Regent in the Mar. Coll.," is elected a Regent at King's College. (Off. and Grad., p. 56.) He "afterwards became a Papist and Jesuit, and a Professor at Madrid". (Knight.) He must have succeeded either Blackhall or Seton. "He wrote De Predestinatione." (Cat. Scot. Writ.) Bajan, 1635.

164 ? Patrick Sandilands.

M.A., King's Coll., 1643. Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1646, but the date is almost certainly wrong, for on 24th June of that year he is transferred to the Regency in King's College, vacated by Youngson. (Off. and Grad.) Afterwards Sub-Principal there: Theses of 1660 (Bodl.). (Morgan's Woodside, p. 159.)

164 ? Robert Forbes.

M.A., King's Coll., 1643. Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1656; but signs discharges of College accounts (together with John Ray, Robert Burnet, and James Chalmers), 1st November, 1648; and is mentioned in Buik of Reg. as having charge of Bajan class of 1648-49. His name appears (with those of Andrew Cant, Alexander Whyte, and George Meldrum) in sundry charters granted by the Caroline University, 1655-58; and (with William Meldrum, George Bannerman, and Thomas Paterson) he signs a tack to Marjory Jameson, 26th June, 1663. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. Mass. XII., 69.) He is named (with the same three) in a decret against Mitchell, 2nd Feb., 1664. On 24th October of that year he appears as a Regent at King's College, and is subsequently Canonist there. (Off. and Grad., p. 57.) Mar. Coll. Theses, 1656 (Bodl.), 1660 (Abd.); King's Coll. Theses, 1680, 1684. "He wrote a Logick Course of Philosophy." (Cat. Scot. Writ.)

164 ? Robert Burnet.

Not in Kennedy's list. Signs College accounts, 1648, ut supra. "Continovit comoun procurator to Lambes 1650." Bajan, 1637.

164 ? James Chalmers.

M.A., King's Coll., 1645. Not in Kennedy's list. Signs College accounts, 1648, ut supra. This is the James Chalmers stated in Scott's Fasti (III., 508) to have been promoted in 1651 from a Regency in King's College to be Minister of New Machar. No such name occurs in the list of Regents of King's College. (Off. and Grad., p. 56.)

164 ? Andrew Cant.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1655; but is mentioned in the Buik of Reg. as having class in the Magistrand class in 1649-50; and in charters of 1651-58. Theses for 1654 (Bodl.), and 1658 (Abd.). "He wrote a Physical Course of Philosophy, also De libero arbitrio." (Cat. Scot. Writ.) Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Liberton in 1659 (Scott's Fasti), and Principal of the University of Edinburgh in 1675 (Grant's Story). This was the son of the famous Andrew. He matriculated at Marischal College in 1640, infra. Joseph Robertson says of him (Deliciae Literariae, p. 25): "He lived to become a non-juring bishop". But the bishop was a third Andrew, son of the Regent's brother, Alexander. (Grub's Eccl. Hist., III., 387.)

16 ? Andrew Birnie.

Not in Kennedy's list. Signs feu charter to Walter Robertson, May, 1651; and an entry in T. C. Reg., lii., 372, 2nd February, 1653. Named in Accounts of 1652-53. Bajan, 1645.

165 ? Alexander White.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1655; but signs Charter to Walter Robertson, 1651, and entry in T. C. Reg., 1653; also sundry charters of 1655-58; and a list of books added in 1662 (Buik of Reg.). Theses for 1657 (Bodl.). (Geneal. Acct. of James Young, p. 192.) Bajan, 1646.

165 ? George Meldrum.

Succeeded Birnie. Signs charters in 1655-58. Theses for 1659 (Abd.). In that year he was promoted to be Minister of the second charge in Aberdeen. (Scott's Fasti.) Rector of Mar. Coll., p. 12. Professor of Divinity in the University of Edinburgh. (Grant's Story.) He published numerous Letters and Sermons in Edinburgh. Bajan, 1647.

16 ? John White [?].

Given by Kennedy under year 1660.

1660. William Meldrum.

M.A., 1654. Appears as Common Procurator in 1660. Signs list of books, 1662, and tack to Marjory Jameson, 1663. Named in decret against Mitchell, 1664. Present at Rectorial Election, March, 1665. Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Auchterless, not later than 1671. (Scott's Fasti.)

166 ? George Bannerman.

M.A., King's Coll., 1659. Not in Kennedy's list. Named in Accounts, 1661. Present at Rectorial Election, March, 1665. A George Bennean is (with W. Paterson, A. Alexander, and R. Bruce) present at election of a bibliothecar on 5th March, 1667. (Copy of Min. in Burgh Ch. Ch., "College," C<sup>2</sup>. 7.) The name is probably a slip for Bannerman.

166 ? Thomas Paterson.

M.A., 1658. Not in Kennedy's list. Signs tack to Marjory Jameson. Named in decret against Mitchell.

1663. Patrick Strachan.

Not in Kennedy's list. Presented to a regency in 1663, in succession to Robert Forbes, who nevertheless appears as a regent in 1664. Signs demission of office, 16th November, 1665, all differences between him and Principal Leslie being referred to Archbishop Sharp. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., "Professorships," Nos. 4, 7, 8.) On 1st August of that year he had been condemned at a Rectorial Court for issuing "heterodox and profane theses . . . qlk became no christiane nor civill mane to mantaine, they altogether reflecting upon the fame of the Universitie, and being ane open floodget to murder, drunkenness and idolatrie". (Buik of Reg.) Bajan, 1657.

1664. John Gordon.

M.A., 1658. Not in Kennedy's list. Adm. in Accts., 1664-65. In 1664, Patrick Strachan complains that Gordon, "servant to Sir Robert Farquhar," has been admitted regent "in lew of the petitioner, being neither cited heard nor advertised of ther procedour much less sentenced or censured," and is "endeavouring in a most subdalous way to intrude himself in the place whereof the petitioner is yet in possession". (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., "Professorships," No. 4.) Present at Rectorial election, March, 1665.

1664. William Paterson.

Not in Kennedy's list. Adm. in Accts, 1664-65. Present at Rectorial election, March, 1665; and at election of bibliothecar, 5th March, 1667. In that year appointed to a regency in Edinburgh. Clerk to the Privy Council, 1679. (Dalziel's Hist.) Bajan, 1659.

166 ? Alexander Alexander.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1668, but present at election of bibliothecar, 5th March, 1667. Theses for 1669 (Abd.). Present at Rectorial elections in March, 1673, and March, 1674, but not 1675. Became Minister of Glass, 1679. (Scott's Fasti; Roger's House of Alexander.) Bajan, 1660.

166 ? Robert Bruce.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1668, but present at election of bibliothecar, 1667; also at Rectorial elections in 1673 and 1674, but not 1675. Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Old Deer not later than 1676 (Scott's Fasti), probably in 1674, for in July of that year his place as a regent had been taken by John Farquhar. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. "Librarian". Cf. Nos. 4 and 6.) He is called "late regent" in an Instrument, Seaton divinity student agt. the Magistrates, 2nd July, 1674. (Burgh Ch. Ch. "College," C<sup>2</sup>. 7.) Bajan, 1661.

1667. Thomas Gray.

Given by Kennedy as admitted in 1668; but is named as teacher of Bajan class, 1667, in Buik of Reg. Theses for 1673 (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch.). He is stated in them to be a grandson of Principal Gilbert Gray. He was present at the Rectorial election of that year, but not in 1674. It would appear from a paper in the Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch. ("Professorships," No. 5) that Gray taught the first class for three successive sessions, and thereafter "ascended" in the usual manner. The same Thos. Gray, "son to the deceased Provost Gray," acted as College Librarian in 1669-73. (T. C. Reg., lv., 158, 526.) Bajan, 1660.

1667. Robert Paterson.

Given by Kennedy under year 1669, but probably succeeded William Paterson in 1667. Teacher of Bajan class, 1671. (Buik of Reg.) Present at Rectorial elections, 1673 and 1674. Promoted to the Principalship, p. 28, 20th November, 1678, when he was succeeded by James Lorimer. Paterson was a younger son of John, Bishop of Ross. (Nisbet's Heraldry.) Bajan, 1661.

16 ? John Lorimer [?].

Given by Kennedy under year 1672; but this must be a blunder, as Alexander, Bruce, Gray, and R. Paterson were in office during that year.

1673. George Peacock.

Given by Kennedy under year 1675, but seems to have succeeded Gray. Present at Rectorial election, March, 1674. Teacher of Bajan class, 1673-74. (Buik of Reg.) Children: James, Mary, Elizabeth. (Poll Book of 1695.) Theses, 1689 (Bodl.), 1693 (Bodl.), 1697 (Glasg.), 1714 (Bodl.). Deprived of office in the political troubles, 1717, when he was succeeded by Patrick Hardie. Bajan, 1666.

1674. John Farquhar.

Given by Kennedy under year 1669, but this is manifestly a blunder, as he succeeded Robert Bruce, probably in 1674. Present at Rectorial election, March, 1675, and (with William Seaton) homologates Paterson's election as Librarian, in May of same year. (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., "Librarian," No. 9.) Minister of Tron Church, Edinburgh, 1677. (Scott's Fasti.) Bajan, 1664.

1674. William Seaton.

Not in Kennedy's list. Succeeded Alexander Alexander, probably in 1674. Named in an Instrument, Magistrates agt. Seaton, 19th January, 1675. (Burgh Ch. Ch. "College," C<sup>2</sup>. 7.) Bajan, 1667.

1675. Robert Farquhar.

Given by Kennedy under year 1676, but signs Charter to Burgh, 9th September, 1675 ("Mortifications," ii., 13). Succeeded John Farquhar. Present at Rectorial elections, 1679 and 1680. Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Cullen, 1681 (Scott's Fasti), when he was succeeded by Thomas Burnett. Semi, 1665.

1675. John Patton.

M.A., 1669. Given by Kennedy under year 1676, but signs Charter to Burgh, 1675. Succeeded William Seaton. Present at Rectorial elections in 1679 and 1680. Taught Bajan class, 1680-81. Promoted from a regency to be Minister of Leochel, 1682 (Scott's Fasti), when he was succeeded by Alexander Litster.

1679, Jan. 16. James Lorimer, student of theologie.

In place of Robert Paterson, promoted to be Principal. Lorimer's is the first appointment of a regent recorded in the "Register of presentationes and admissiões of all principales and maisteres". The letter of presentation by George, eighth Earl Marischal, dated 15th January, is engrossed. The appointment is "for this present yeir of God underwritten and yeirle in tyme coming during our pleasure and ay and quhill we shall declair his charge vaccant by writt under our own hand and the samen be intimat to him". The admitters are: Principal Robert Paterson, Regents George Peacock, John Patton, Robert Farquhar, Professor Duncan Liddell, Mr. Patrick Sibbald, parson of St. Nicholas, and Mr. Robert Bruce, minister at Old Deer. Bajan, 1670.

1681, October 27. Thomas Burnet, master of airts.

In place of Robert Farquhar, demitted. Promoted to a regency in Edinburgh, 1686, as a reward for representing (in Theses printed at Aberdeen in that year) the Reformation as a villainous rebellion, and asserting that the King of Scotland had the power of making and abrogating laws and imposing taxes without the consent of Parliament. In 1690, because of the very same Theses, he was deprived of his regency by the Commission of Visitation. (Minutes of Commn. in Reg. Ho.; Fountainhall's Decisions; Presbyterian Inquisition in Univ. of Edin.) Bajan, 1673.

1682, October 3. Alexander Litster, student of theologie.

In place of John Patton, demitted. Demitted 1693. Children: John, Alexander, Francis, Marjorie, Elizabeth (Poll Book). Bajan, 1667.

1683, July 25. Robert Keith, student of theologie.

"Sone to the deceist doctor William Keith, professor of theologie in Edinburgh." In place of James Lorimer. Theses, 1687 (Bodl.). For a reference to this Keith, see Fountainhall's Scottish Affairs, p. 248, where he is designated "of Lentosh". Bajan, 1668.

1686,<sup>1</sup> November 1. James Moir, student in divinitie.

"Lawfull sone to James Moir in Ferrihill." In place of Thomas Burnet, removed to the College of Edinburgh. Children: Agnes, Jean (Poll Book). Died 1713. Bajan, 1674.

1688, March 29. Alexander Moir, student of divinitie.

"Brother german to James Moir of Stoniewood." In place of Robert Keith. "A gentleman of great erudition and primitive simplicity of manners." "No wife, child, nor servant" (Poll Book). Theses, 1699 (Bodl.). Deprived in 1717. He went to Edinburgh, and kept a private Academy for sons of Jacobite nobility and gentry for several years. (Lettsom's Life, I.; Nichols' Lit. Anecd., I.; Family of Moir and Byres.) Tertian, 1684.

1693, December 5. William Smith.

Governour then to Charles Lord Hay. In place of Alexander Litster, demitted. "No wife, child, nor servant" (Poll Book). Author of the Oratio in qua inclytae Academiae Marischallanae Abredonensis Nobilissimus Parens, Illustres Maecenates et Eximii Benefactores ad annum MDCXCVI commemorantur, Abred., 1701—so often quoted in Vol. I. Theses 1700, 1704, 1708 (Aberd.), and 1712 (Glasg.). Deprived in 1717.

1713, March 2. George Keith.

M.A., 1700. "Son to Sir William Keith of Ludquhairn, baronett." In place of James Moir, lately deceased. Summoned before the Presbytery of <sup>1</sup> Kennedy has a John Keith, under this date, who does not appear in the Register; and Douglas (Peerage, ed. of 1813, II. p., 190) speaks of a "Professor Thomas Keith of the Marischal College"—equally unknown. See Scottish N. and Q., Jan. 1897.

Aberdeen, 27th Jan., 1714, for adultery with Anne Davidson, a married woman. Refused to appear, and was pronounced contumacious. On 10th November, his name was put on the roll of excommunicated persons. (Presb. Min.) This seems to have entailed loss of his regency.

1715, November 30. William Meston.

M.A., 1698. "Late Governour to the honourable Mr. James Keith brother german to the Earle Marischal." In place of George Keith, "lately removed from the said office". Several of the admitters were absent "by reason of the disorders of the times". Meston gave "a publick oration and a specimen in the Greek tongue". Deprived in 1717, he seems never to have actually taught, for in session 1715-16 "the Colledge was separat before the Lawes were read or the season of payment come" (Coll. Proc. Accts.), and in 1716, no classes assembled; but in 1729 he obtained from the Town Council payment of salary for period from Whitsunday, 1715, to Martinmas, 1716: £82 10s. Scots (T. C. Reg., lx., 85). The notice of Meston in Dict. Nat. Biog. is incorrect in several details. Cf. the sketch of him (by the present editor) in N. and Q., 7, X., 21, where a bibliography is attempted. Introduced in Allardyce's Balmoral.

1717, Sept. 30. Patrick Hardie.

In place of George Peacock, deprived. The King's commissions bear that each regent is to hold office "during all the dayes of his naturall life". Hardie died 1724.

1717, September 30. David Verner.

In place of Alexander Moir, deprived. Had studied law in Universities of Edinburgh and Glasgow. Created LL.D. (p. 95), and in 1724 appointed to lecture on law. Theses, 1721 (Westburn), 1730 (Glasg.). Died 1752, aged 64. (Aberd. Journal, 28th Jan., 1752; Bower's Life of Beattie.)

1717, September 30. John Anderson.

In place of William Meston, deprived. Second son of Alexander Anderson of Bourtie. M.A., King's Coll., 1700. Died 1721.

1717, September 30. George Cruden.

In place of William Smith, deprived. Bajan, 1712. Died 1723.

1721, April 14. George Turnbull.

In place of John Anderson, deceased. Theses, 1726 (Aberd.). Author of Moral and Christian philosophy, Lond. 1740; Universal law, Lond. 1741; Collection of ancient paintings, Lond. 1744. LL.D., 1727, in which year he demitted office. See p. 95.

1723, September 6. Thomas Haddow, professor of Greek.

In place of George Cruden, deceased. This is the first mention in the Register of a regent allocated to the teaching of Greek. The Parliamentary Commission of Visitation appointed in 1690 had in 1700 issued an ordinance in the following terms:—

"At Edinburgh, the 16th day of August, 1700 years, the commissioners appointed by act of parliament for visitation of universities, colleges, and schools taking to their consideration that it would conduce much to the better learning, and for the improvement of the study of the Greek tongue, that the teacher of the same in the first of the four classes in use for Greek and philosophy in each university and college were fixed, and not ambulatory as now he is; do therefore appoint and ordain that hereafter the said teacher of the Greek tongue be fixed, and continue still to teach the same in the said first class to all that shall come to learn under him from year to year, as constant master of the said Greek language, which he is hereby appointed to begin to teach at and after the first day of November through the whole year, untill the rising of the class by the ordinary vacation; so that in all that space he is to teach only the Greek grammar and proper Greek authors, without teaching so much as any Structura Syllogismi, or any thing else belonging to the course of philosophy, which is only to be commenced the next year thereafter; and this act and ordinance to take effect after the first of November next. Likeas, for the encouragement of the said fixed teacher of the Greek, it is hereby appointed that no scholar bred at schools in Scotland shall be admitted to learn philosophy, or any part of the course thereof, in any of the colleges and universities, unless that he have learned his Greek, at least for the ordinary year under the said fixed Greek master, and report an authentic certification thereon; and this provision to take effect for and after the year 1701, and no sooner. And for the better executing this act it is farther enacted, that if there be at present any vacancy of any of the four ordinarily called masters or professors of philosophy in any of the said colleges and universities, the same shall be supplied in the ordinary manner by a fixed Greek master, who is to remain as said is, leaving the other three to ascend with their philosophy classes as use is; and where there is no vacancy, the said fixed Greek master is for this time to be chosen by the faculty (that is the meeting of the rector, the professors and masters of each of the said colleges and universities) out of the masters, as the said faculty shall determine, which they are hereby ordained to do betwixt and the first day of October next. And the Greek master that shall be chosen hereby is ordained to obey without reclaiming, with this provision nevertheless for his encouragement, that it shall be in his option, upon any vacancy that happens of any of the said three philosophy masters in his college or university, to betake himself to his place without any new trial; in which case the vacancy of the Greek master shall be supplied by one to be fixed as above. And the commission ordain letters and charges to be direct on this act as effects, and that the same be furthwith printed and sent to the several universities and colleges, that none may pretend ignorance."

On 26th February, 1701, the Principal and Regents wrote to the Clerk of the Commission:—"We did lykwayes give tymous obedience to the Act for settling ane Greek Master in the Colledges, and did nominate and elect Master Alexander Moir on of the Regents of this Colledge, to be ane fixed Greek Professor in all tyme coming, who has accepted that office in this Colledge. We do therfor intreat ye will represent this matter of fact to the Visitation, when they do take ane revieu of this matter, and show how readie compliance we have given heerin." (Records of Visitation in Gen. Reg. Ho.)

This appointment was sanctioned by the Commission, 14th January, 1702 ; but it appears not to have become operative, for the Album shows Alexander Moir in charge of the Magistrand class in sessions 1702-3, and 1706-7, as would have been the case under the old four-year cycle. When the four new regents were appointed in 1717, their commissions were in identical terms, but seemingly Cruden (whom Haddow is said to succeed) must soon thereafter have been set aside for the duties of a Greek chair. The admission on 8th Oct., 1717, of Matthew McKaile to the Professorship of Medicine (p. 55) he signs "Geo. Cruden, P[hilosophiae] P[rofessor]" ; but the admission, on 14th April, 1721, of George Turnbull to a regency (p. 40) he signs "Geo. Cruden, L[iterarum] G[raecarum] P[rofessor]". If Cruden became Professor of Greek soon after 1717, a three-year cycle would have been set up for the other three Regents. See "Sequence of the Regents," Appx.

Haddow must have died soon after admission. He held a certificate "of good life and conversation" from Mr. John Cormack, minister of the Gospel, St. Andrews.

1723, December 13. Thomas Blackwell, professor of Greek.

In place of Haddow, deceased. Became also Principal in 1748, p. 29.

1724, Oct. 15. Daniel Gordon.

Student of theology, St. Andrews. In place of Patrick Hardie, deceased. Died 1729.

1727, July 25. William Duff.

In place of George Turnbull, demitted. Son of Hugh Duff, minister of Fearn, Ross-shire (Wimberley's Hosp. of Invss.), and M.A., King's Coll., 1721. Theses, 1732 (Aberd.).

In 1734 Duff had a lawsuit with his colleague, Thomas Blackwell. On Sunday, 7th January, "betwixt the hours of 2 and 3, in the College Church, during Divine Service, he jostled and pressed violently on Mr. Blackwell". Next day, when Blackwell was teaching in the Bajan Class, Duff sent William Fowler, sacrist, "to desire him to come out and speak to a gentleman," and struck him on the head with a staff which he had provided on purpose, "having come without his gown, which he had put off for that effect". Blackwell presented a "Complaint and Libell unto the Revd. Princip<sup>l</sup> and Masters met in faculty," which Duff requested time to answer ; but the latter passed from one delay to another, and finally advocated the case to Edinburgh, on the plea that the Masters had no jurisdiction, and that two of their number had malice against him. It was agreed, however, to submit the matter to the Principal and Mr. Forbes, Sheriff Depute of Aberdeen, who settled it by a Decreet-Arbitral. A minute of Faculty was prepared in draft, in which Duff was to acknowledge the jurisdiction of the College, ask pardon for attacking its privileges, and receive a rebuke from the Principal. He was at first fully satisfied with this, and showed much impatience to have a meeting held, where it should be approved; but on this being done he refused to submit, and insisted upon his Bill of Advocation. The outcome of the proceedings has not been traced—(Mem. for Duff, 21st February; Pet. of Duff, 24th February; Answ. for Blackwell, 25th February; Answ. for Prin. and other Masters, 23rd July—printed papers in Town House Charter Room).

At a meeting of Faculty, held on 9th February, 1736, Duff is charged with neglect of duty and “with quarrelling upon slight and trivial occasions with one Master after the other, and raising litigious and expensive lawsuits, and with instigating the students to illegal and hurtful proceedings and undutiful conduct to their masters”. At Christmas vacation he had to go to Edinburgh, and did not return till 6th January (the vacation ending on the 1st); neglected his duty as Hebdomader; refused to preside at the public disputes; and on 3rd February again went to Edinburgh, appointing an assistant without asking leave of the College. Blackwell states that he had raised criminal actions against all his colleagues, and calls him “that strange unhappy man”.

1st March, 1736.—Duff protests in violent language, styling the minute of 9th February “a pretended calumnious unsigned lybel,” of which a copy was refused him.

10th March, 1737.—At a Rectorial meeting the Principal informs the Court that he has, with advice and consent of the Faculty, given to Regent Duff two admonitions for neglect of duty and other irregularities. The Court authorise the Principal to give him forthwith the third and last admonition, in terms of the Foundation Charter.

At subsequent meetings evidence is given of Duff's non-attendance at College for two years: Drs. Campbell and Glennie, then students, being among the witnesses. On 20th January, 1738, sentence of expulsion is formally pronounced, Duff being “extruded forth and from the said University and Marischall College, and his said office and employment declared void and vacant and at his Majesty's gift and disposal as patron of the foresaid University”. (Papers in Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., “Rectors and Rectorial Courts”.)

Duff went to London, where he published The Case of William Duff, Professor of Philosophy in the Marischal University of Aberdeen; Showing the Barbarous Treatment of an Honest Family, 1739; and A History of Scotland, Vol. I. (all pubd.) 1750 (with author's portrait).

1729, Novemb. 25. Dr. Matthew McKail.

Previously Professor of Medicine, p. 55. In place of Daniel Gordon, deceased. Some objection seems to have been taken to the admission of McKail, as only three admitters sign. He delivers a discourse “On the connexion and difference betwixt the atomic or Copernican and the Newtonian philosophy”. Died 1733.

1734, March 26. Francis Skene.

Son of George Skene, minister of Kinkell (Skene Memorials). M.A. King's Coll., 1721. In place of McKail, on whose death it had been proposed to revert to the plan of the Founder, and assign the three higher classes to particular masters, Verner to take the semis, Duff the magistrands, and McKail's successor the tertians. But Skene petitioned against this (Min. of 28th June), and his objections were sustained. When the new plan was adopted in 1753, he was assigned the Semis Class. LL.D., 1766, when he is also made "Professor of Laws" (cf. Min. of 26th Nov., 1760). Died 1775. Portrait in possession of University.

1739, April 10. Alexander Innes.

Great grandson of David Gregory of Kinnairdie (Off. and Grad., p. 37). M.A., 1732. Had acted as substitute during William Duff's absence, sessions 1736-7, 1737-8, 1738-9. After Duff's deposition on 20th January, 1738, the Rector, Principal and Masters appear to have pressed Innes' claims on the Chancellor, Lord Ilay, but without effect until January, 1739, when he recommends them to apply to the Duke of Newcastle. This they do, 19th January, calling his attention to "the melancholy situation of our Colledge"; but at the same time resolve "to fix a Program to the College and kirk doors [cf. Vol. I., p. 45] within a few days in order to secure their privilidges". The Duke "making farther delays and offsets," they resolve, 2nd March, to act on the program, and seek the concurrence of the Magistrates in case the election should be called in question. On 19th March, the edict is duly "called," but no candidates appear, and they intimate to Lord Ilay that they have put off the election till 10th April, hoping to hear from him. On that day, having no letter, they elect Mr. Innes. It is claimed that this is competent, from there having been no presentation notified, although a year had elapsed since the vacancy had been intimated to the Crown, from no answer to letters having been received, from the loss sustained by the College in wanting a Regent, and from the terms of the Foundation Charter. Lord Ilay writes on 23rd April that he had received the communication of 7th March on 20th April. "It seems instead of sending it by the Post, it came by somebody who took France in his way." He chides the Faculty for not transmitting to Government a regular copy of the proceedings against Duff, wonders "a learned body did not better apprehend the meaning of such notification," and send the causes of deposition, instead of writing, "in no other stile than if Duff had been dead". The Crown ought to have known the whole, as a mark of respect, the office being one for life. Duff, he adds, "has been a considerable time about town making a noise in all the offices and in every place where he could have access". After this scolding, Lord Ilay becomes kinder, and says that he has taken their part, and told everybody that "Duff's long stay in this London and the unaccountable turn of his temper made it highly probable that the Faculty had done nothing but justice". Blackwell's reply is a humble palinode, requesting a presentation for Innes. It does not appear that this was ever sent.

We learn from a Memorial to the Barons of the Exchequer that Innes "was so generous as to permit the emoluments of the class [1736-39] to go to the support of Mr. Duff's unhappy relinquished family". He died in 1742. (Coll.

1742, Sept. 9. David Fordyce.

The second of Provost George Fordyce's twenty children, and through his mother a relative of Principal Blackwell. M.A., 1728. Preacher of the gospel: no parish. Was recommended by the College to the Crown, in place of Innes. In 1750 got leave of absence and visited Rome: in returning, 1751, was drowned off the coast of Holland. Portrait at Brucklay Castle. Author of Dialogues concerning education, Lond., 1745; Theodorus, 1752; Moral philosophy, Lond., 1754; Temple of virtue, Lond., 1757; British letter-writer, Lond., 1790. (Dingwall Fordyce Fam. Rec.)

1752, July 7. Alexander Gerard.

Son of deceased Gilbert Gerard, minister of Chapel of Garioch. M.A., 1744. Commission dated 18th May. In place of Fordyce, for whom he had acted as substitute, sessions 1750-1 and 1751-2. Demitted 1760, on becoming Professor of Divinity and minister of Greyfriars. D.D., King's Coll., 1761. Moderator of Gen. Assembly, 1764. Professor of Divinity, King's Coll., 1771. Died 1795. Was instrumental in bringing about the fixing of the Classes in 1753. In 1755 his Plan of Education in the Marischal Coll. and University of Aberdeen, with the reasons of it, was printed by order of the Faculty. (German translation pubd. at Riga, 1770. See also George Kerr's Examination of a pamphlet entitled 'Plan of Education, etc.', Aberd., 1826.) His other works are well known. Married, 14th June, 1757, Jean Wight, with issue: Marjory (m. Patrick Campbell of Stracathro), Gilbert (his successor at King's Coll.), Alexander, John, Jane, and Margaret Helen (m. James Cruickshank of Langley Park). Portrait in possession of University. Together with James Beattie, George Campbell, John Gregory, Thomas Reid, and David Skene, founded the Philosophical Society of Aberdeen. (See Macmillan's Mag. for Sept., 1863.)

1753, Aug. 21. William Duncan.

In place of Verner. Son of deceased William Duncan of Atrochy. M.A., 1735. Had attended some divinity classes, but became a professional author in London. Commission dated, like Gerard's, 18th May, 1752, but on 1st Nov., certified by two physicians to be unable to undertake the journey to Aberdeen, and David Burn, preacher of the Gospel, appointed to conduct his class. Drowned while bathing, 12th May, 1760. Author of Logic (in Dodsley's "Preceptor"), Lond., 1748, etc.; Cæsar's Commentaries, trans., Lond., 1753, etc.; Discourse on Roman art of war, Lond., 1755; editions of Greek New Test. and Ainsworth's Latin Dictionary; Cicero's Select Orations, trans., Lond., 1771; also probably of Vol. II. of Watson's Horace, and of several translations from the French. (Biog. sketch, not very accurate, in Scottish Register, Vol. I.)

By minute of Senatus, of date 11th January, 1753, the subjects and classes had been fixed as follows:—

Francis Skene, professor of Civil and Natural History (semis).

William Duncan, professor of Natural Philosophy (tertians).

- 1753, Aug. 21. Alexander Gerard, professor of Moral Philosophy and Logic (magistrands).

A programme of the classes as thus arranged appeared in the Aberdeen Journal of 2nd Oct. The King's College professors, while adopting the altered sequence of subjects, adhered to the old system of circulating regents. This, it is understood, was due to the authority of Dr. Thomas Reid, who gave it a decided preference. The grounds on which so enlightened a teacher defended a practice that once extensively prevailed are interesting. The minutes embodying them are quoted in the present editor's Arts Curriculum, Aberd., 1892, p. 13. See also Abstract of some orders and statutes of King's College, Aberd., 1753.

- 1758, March 7. William Kennedy, professor of Greek.

In place of Blackwell. Son of the Rev. Hugh Kennedy, one of the ministers of the Scots Church, Rotterdam. M.A., 1754. Student of divinity. Died 14th November, 1782.

- 1760, Oct. 8. James Beattie, professor of moral philosophy and logic.

In place of Gerard. Son of James Beattie, farmer, Laurencekirk. First bursar, 1749; M.A., 1753; LL.D., King's Coll., 1770; D.C.L., Oxon., 1773. Married, 28th June, 1767, Mary Dun, with issue: James Hay (infra), and Montagu. Died 18th Aug., 1803. His numerous writings are well known, the only one explicitly for the use of his students being Scoticisms, Aberd., 1778. Portrait (in the allegorical painting by Sir Joshua Reynolds), in the possession of the University, reproduced in the great window, Mitchell Hall, Mar. Coll., and in this volume. (Bower's Life; Forbes' Life; Dict. Nat. Biog.; Sir W. D. Geddes' Poetic ideals of education.)

- 1760, Oct. 8. George Skene, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of Duncan. Son of Regent Francis Skene (supra). M.A., 1755. M.D. Married, 26th October, 1769, Margaret, daughter of Charles Gordon of Abergeldie, with issue: John, Francis, Amelia (m. Capt. Edmund Filmer), Mary, Charles (Prof. of Medicine, infra), Mary Anne, Elizabeth, Margaret (m. Arthur Anderson of Deebank, now Newton Dee), Andrew, William, Alison. Succeeded his father as professor of civil and natural history, 1775.

1775. George Skene, professor of civil and natural history.

This transference is not entered in the Reg. of Pres. Demitted office 1788, and died 25th March, 1803. Portrait in possession of University.

- 1775, March 25. Patrick Copland, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of George Skene, transferred, whom he had assisted during session 1774-75. Son of Rev. Samuel Copland, D.D., minister of Fintray. M.A., 1766. Appointed Professor of Mathematics, 1779, but taught that subject in reality for only one session. See 1817, infra.

- 1779, June 18. Robert Hamilton, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of Copland, transferred. Son of Gavin Hamilton, bookseller, and grandson of Principal William Hamilton, Edinburgh. Rector of Perth

The original by Joshua Reynolds.

Academy. LL.D., Edin., 1775. Exchanged duties with Copland in 1780, but not until 1817 formally appointed Professor of Mathematics, p. 54.

1782, Dec. 9. John Stuart, professor of Greek.

In place of Kennedy, for whom he had acted as substitute, 1781-2. Son of John Stuart of Inchbreck. Alumnus, 1767. Studied Law and Divinity. Married, 26th April, 1787, Margaret, daughter of George Mowatt, merchant, Aberdeen, with issue: John, Marjory, Mary, George Andrew, Alexander, Charles. Died 27th August, 1827. Taught in part from 1815, and wholly from 1818, by deputies, viz. :—

1815-18. Alexander Black, afterwards professor of divinity, p. 52.

1818-20. Alexander Leith Ross, died March, 1821.

1820-22. Robert Reid.

1824-27. Robert Reid.

Stuart was author of Life of Dr. Duncan Liddel, Aberd., 1790 (repr. in Aberdeen Mag., 1796); "Marischal College" in Sinclair's Statistical Account, Vol. 21, Edinb., 1799; Essays, chiefly on Scottish Antiquities, Aberd., 1846. Portrait by John Moir in possession of Aberdeen Medico-Chirurgical Society, which he helped to found. (Life prefixed to Essays.)

1787, Sept. 28. James Hay Beattie.

Appointed assistant and successor to his father, the preamble of the Commission citing "the advanced period of life of James Beattie". M.A., 1786. Died 19th Nov., 1790. Author of Essays and fragments, Edin., 1794; Syllabus of Versification, Aberd., 1795; Miscellanies, Lond., 1799. (Life by his father, 1792; portrait engraved, 1801.) First winner of the Silver Pen.

1788, May 10. William Morgan, professor of civil and natural history.

In place of George Skene. Son of George Morgan. Late rector of Kingston, Jamaica. D.D., King's Coll., 1780. Married to Martha Jopping, with issue (alive at his admission), James Gordon. Died 2nd Sept., so that he never taught.

1788, Oct. 22. James Beattie, professor of civil and natural history.

In place of Morgan. Son of David Beattie, Laurencekirk, and nephew of Dr. James Beattie. M.A., 1783. Married, 5th June, 1794, Jane Innes, with issue: James, David, Anne, Alexander, Jean, John. Died 5th Oct., 1810. "Ewen Maclachlan in November published two poems in his memory" (Knight).

1796, Sept. 30. George Glennie, professor of moral philosophy.

Assistant and successor "on account of the advanced period of life" of Dr. James Beattie. Son of Dr. John Glennie, minister of Maryculter. M.A., 1786. Entered on the full charge when Dr. Beattie died in 1803. One of ministers of Aberdeen, in conjunction, from 1813. D.D., 1816. Married, 4th July, 1797, Margaret Valentine, niece of Dr. Beattie, with issue: Jane (m. Professor William Knight), James Beattie, Mary (m. Professor Patrick Forbes of King's College), Margaret (d. in nine days), Margaret, John, George, Helen. Died 9th November, 1845. Had latterly taught by deputies:—

1840. James Duirs, M.A.

1841-43. Alexander Bain, M.A., 1840, afterwards Prof. of Logic in the University of Aberdeen.

1844. Rev. William R. Pirie, Prof. of Divinity.

1845. William Fraser, alumnus of Edinburgh.

1811 [?] Robert Renny.

In place of James Beattie, younger. Minister of Kilsyth. DD., 1808. Unanimously recommended by the Faculty, 23rd Nov., 1810, and duly gazetted to the post, but on 2nd April, 1811, wrote that, "owing to unforeseen and peculiar circumstances originating in the present perplexed state of commercial credit in that part of the country where he now resides, which prevent him from arranging his private affairs, so as to enable him in due time to assume and discharge the office to which he had been appointed, he had thought it expedient to intimate his resignation to the Faculty". (Min. of 10th April.) On 6th May, the Faculty recommend Dr. James Davidson by the casting vote of the Principal, four members voting for William Knight, who had conducted the classes, by appointment of the Faculty, during session 1810-11.

1811, July 1. James Davidson, professor of civil and natural history.

In place of Renny. M.D., Edin., 1792. Hon. M.A., King's Coll., 1811. Physician at Dunfermline. Married 2ndly, 3rd Nov., 1811, Charlotte Johnston, with issue: Elizabeth, Christian, David, James Johnston, Laurence, John Rankin, Margaret, Charlotte, William Adam, Robert Halkerston, Andrew. Died 19th Feb., 1841. Classes had been taught, 1838-41, by a substitute, John Shier, M.A. (p. 59). (Riddell's Aberdeen and its folk.)

1817, July 9. Patrick Copland, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of Hamilton, demitted. Copland and Hamilton had (with the approval of the Faculty and Magistrates) exchanged their duties on 16th Nov., 1780, but the formal exchange of chairs was only now made. When the exchange was arranged in 1816, the Faculty recommended to the Crown the joint appointment of Professor Copland's son, John, as assistant and successor to his father; but this was found incompetent. Copland was made LL.D., 27th June, 1817. He married, 27th Sept., 1787, Elizabeth Ogilvie, with issue: Alexander, John, Charles, Mary (m. Alexander Murchison, M.D.). Died 10th Nov., 1822. His collection of apparatus purchased for 700 guineas by the college. (Knight's MSS., quoted in Scot. N. and Q., I., 124.)

1823, Feb. 20. William Knight, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of Copland. Son of William Knight, bookseller. M.A., 1802;

LL.D., 1817. Had taught semi class of 1810-11 ; and extra-mural classes of botany and chemistry, 1811-16 ; Professor of natural philosophy, Academical Institution, Belfast, 1816-22. In September, 1822, Copland offered to resign if a presentation could be secured for Knight, and the Faculty unanimously recommended him for the post. On 29th Oct., he was appointed to teach the class during the ensuing session. Copland died 10th Nov., and Knight was gazetted 26th Nov. Resumed the teaching of botany in 1823, and in 1827 was appointed lecturer on that subject by the joint Medical School, infra. Married, 17th Sept., 1821, Jane, daughter of Professor Glennie, with issue : Margaret, Janet, Jean, George, William, Mary. Died 3rd December, 1844. Author of Heads of a course of lectures, Aberd., 1811 ; Outlines of botany, Aberd., 1813, 1828 ; Facts towards a new theory of the earth, Edin., 1818 ; The first day in heaven, Lond., 1820 ; "Marischal Coll." in New Statist. Acct., Edin., 1845. His MS. Collections have been of immense service in the preparation of these volumes. (Dict. Nat. Biog. ; Masson's "Men I have Known" in Macmillan's Mag., Vol. 9 ; Bain's "Recollections" in Alma Mater, Vol. 6 ; Aberdeen and its folk ; Brown's Bookstall.)

1827, Dec. 11. Robert James Brown, professor of Greek.

In place of Stuart : unanimously recommended by the Faculty. Son of Principal W. L. Brown. M.A., 1808. Minister of Drumblade, 1821-27. Moderator of F. C. Assembly, 1846. Married, 14th Sept., 1829, Jane Stronach, without issue. Retired, on the union of the Universities in 1860, and died 7th December, 1872. Portrait by Philip, in F. C. Coll., Aberd.

1841, May 17. William Macgillivray, professor of civil and natural history.

In place of Davidson. M.A., King's Coll., 1815 ; LL.D., King's Coll., 1844. Married, Marion McCaskill, with issue : John, Isabella, Williamina Craigie, Marion McCaskill (m. William Jamieson), Anne Dorothea, Paul Howard, Audubon Felix, Caroline Mary, Margaret Christina, William Norman. Died 5th Sept., 1852. His numerous ornithological and other works are well known. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

1845, March 7. David Gray, professor of natural philosophy.

In place of Knight. The class during the remainder of session 1844-5 had been taught by Alexander Bain (see under 1796). Gray was Rector of Royal Academy, Inverness, 1839-45. Married, Margaret Jane Brown, with issue : Thomas David, Frances Downie, John Roubel, Catherine Roubel, George, Mary Clementina, Marion Hannah, Margaret Jane. Died 10th Febr., 1856. Author of Introductory lecture on 3rd Nov., Aberd., 1846, 1848 ; On the grammar school curriculum, Aberd., 1854 ; Letter on the advantages of a mathematical training [1854].

1846, April 15. William Martin, professor of moral philosophy and logic.

In place of Glennie. M.A., St. And., 1837 ; LL.D., St. And., 1868. On the union of the Universities in 1860, became professor of moral philosophy in the University of Aberdeen. Retired 1876. Married, 18th Oct., 1886, Annie May, daughter of late Rev. William Beattie, minister of Evie and Rendall. Died 18th February, 1890. 1832, Dec. 18. John Macrobin.

M.D., Edin., 1827. "Assistant to Dr. Charles Skene in the said office with all the powers and privileges of a professor of medicine," but without explicit right of succession. Macrobin had acted as assistant to Skene during session 1831-32, but this appointment was made without the previous knowledge of Dr. Skene; and the Senatus, "believing this case to be entirely unprecedented in any Scottish University, and thinking that evils would follow from its being drawn into a precedent," made representations on the subject to the Home Secretary, which were strongly supported by the Chancellor, the Duke of Gordon, but without effect. (Lengthy minutes of Senatus, 13th Nov., 1832, to 4th July, 1833, printed in Appx. to Second Report of Commissioners of 1836-37, pp. 189-197. See also Aberd. Mag., Dec., 1832.) On Skene's resignation in 1839, Macrobin received a new presentation to the Chair, and was admitted accordingly, 3rd Sept. The Senatus petitioned to have the name of the chair altered to "Practice of Medicine," but this was not done. The change, however, was made in 1860, on the union of the Universities, when Macrobin became Professor of the Practice of Medicine in the University of Aberdeen. He married, 1st, Anna Hare Challoner, with issue: Mary, Anna Elizabeth, John Charles, Andrew Arthur (M.A., 1863; M.B., 1866), Jane Henzell, Henrietta Nicolson, Eleanor, Frances Louisa, Ellen Anna, Anna Hare Challoner; 2nd, Eleanor Isabella Cattle. ## PROFESSORS OF CHEMISTRY.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Chair founded by William, 9th Earl Marischal, in 1700: Vol. I., p. 381. The Rectorial election of 1688 is held in the presence, inter alios, of "doctor William Moir, professor of medicine". In 1689 and 1690, he is styled "William Moir, doctor of medicine".

1793, Dec. 14. George French.

Son of John French, advocate, and Christian, dau. of Thomas Blackwell, 9th Principal. M.D., 1786. Physician in Aberdeen. Designated first professor in the will of Mrs. Blackwell, widow of his uncle, the 11th Principal. Married, Sarah Wellard, with issue: Christian Julia (m. Charles Ross, merchant). Died 13th Aug., 1833. Portrait in possession of Medico-Chirurgical Society. (Dingwall Fordyce Fam. Hist.) 1833, Nov. 12. Thomas Clark.

M.D., Glasg., 1831. This appointment caused much dissension. By Mrs. Blackwell's deed of Foundation the Principal and professors were directed to fill up vacancies by a comparative trial of candidates, but on 21st Sept., 1827, the Commissioners of 1826 expressed doubt as to the right of the principal and professors to nominate, and directed them, in the event of a vacancy therein, to intimate the same to the Commission if then in force. Intimation was sent to the Secretary, but the Commissioners proved to have transmitted their final report, and the faculty accordingly advertised the vacancy, and examiners were selected—Professor Thomson, Glasgow; Rev. A. J. Forsyth, Belhelvie; Professors Davidson, Skene, and Knight. Three candidates appeared: Thomas Clark, William Henderson, M.A., M.D. (who had acted as assistant to Professor French, and was afterwards Lecturer on Materia Medica), and William Laing, M.A., M.D. (afterwards Lecturer on Surgery). It was, however, objected that Clark being only M.D., had not undergone the "regular academical education" required by the "deed of foundation," and his admission as a candidate was carried only by the casting vote of the Principal; Professors Black, Glennie, Knight and Brown voting against him. Prof. Knight thereupon declined to act as Examiner. On the conclusion of the examination, which lasted for three days, the examiners reported unanimously in favour of Clark. (Lengthy Minutes, 20th Aug. to 12th Nov., printed in Appx. to Second Report of 1836-37 Commissioners, pp. 212-220.) In session 1842-43, Clark's health gave way, and, excepting a few abortive attempts, he never lectured again. His class was conducted by a series of substitutes :—

1843-45. John Shier, M.A., 1831; LL.D., 1845; Professor Davidson's assistant (p. 48), 1838-41; Fordyce lecturer (p. 73), 1840-45. (Dr. Bain's Biog. Mem.)

1845-47. Professor Andrew Fyfe, of King's College.

1847-52. John Smith, M.A., 1843; M.D., 1844; LL.D., 1876. Afterwards Professor of Physics and Chemistry, University of Sydney.

1852. James Smith Brazier. Also substitute for Professor Fyfe in 1854, and succeeded him as Professor of Chemistry in the University of Aberdeen in 1862.

Notwithstanding his persistent ill-health, Clark was able to devote considerable attention to subjects of diverse character; Water tests, University tests, English style, Spelling reform, Historical origin of the Gospels; on which he issued numerous pamphlets. He made himself useful to the College in the struggles that ended in the union of 1860. He married, 6th Febr., 1849, Mary McEwen, with issue: Thomas (died young). He retired in 1860, and died 27th Nov., 1867. (Dr. Bain's Biog. Mem.; Alma Mater, Vol. VI.)

1741, Sept. 4. Part of the new building is called the "Anatomical Hall". (Min.)

1758, Oct. 17. Dr. John Gregory and Dr. David Skene advertise classes for Medicine and Midwifery. (Aberd. Journal.) "Notwithstanding the deservedly high reputation of these two gentlemen, their endeavours did not meet with that encouragement which might have been expected, owing entirely to certain unlucky differences, subsisting at that time amongst the physicians here, who rather discouraged the scheme in general, and some entirely prevented their pupils from attending." (Coll. of Papers, 1787, p. 188.)

1759, Jan. 9. Kirk Session of Old Machar emit a long and strong edict about the ignorance of midwives, and recommend Dr. Skene's midwifery class. (Aberd. Jfl.)

1770. Professor Thomas Gordon's scheme of Union contemplates a Professor of Anatomy in addition to a Professor of Medicine. (Coll. of Papers.)

1782, Feb. 4. Dr. William Chalmers announces a "Medical Academy" comprehending Medicine, Midwifery, and in Summer Botany. "The virtues of medicines, and the most elegant and effectual methods of compounding and prescribing them will be delivered and reduced to practice." (Aberd. Jfl.) Next month Dr. Chalmers becomes Mediciner at King's College, and nothing more is heard of a wish to teach.

1786. In the Union controversy the formation of a Medical School is held out as a principal inducement. (Coll. of Papers.)

1786, Oct. 23. Dr. French and Dr. Livingston (afterwards Professors) propose a six months' course of clinical lectures at the Infirmary. (Aberd. Jfl.)

Appointed by King's Coll., 31st Oct., and now confirmed under Regulation 4.

"It being suggested to the Faculty that a Medical School on an extended plan, and under the patronage of both Universities, might now be established; they unanimously approve of the measure, and desire their Clerk to write a letter to the Principal and Professors of King's College, requesting a meeting with them, to take the proposal into consideration and, if approved of, to take the necessary steps for carrying it into effect."

"MARISCHAL COLLEGE, 19th May, 1818.

"The Report of the Committee of both Colleges relative to the appointment of Medical Lecturers having been laid before the Faculty and read, they unanimously approve of the same and order it to be recorded in their minutes, whereof the tenor follows:—

"Aberdeen, May 16, 1818.—At a Meeting of the Committees of King's and Marischal Colleges, to arrange a plan for the establishment of a Medical School, held at Marischal College, 16th May, the following regulations were suggested, as most consistent with the constitution of the Colleges, and best adapted to promote the institution, which, under the joint patronage of the two Universities, may attain a greater character, and be more extensively useful, than it could if only supported by one of them.

"1. Both Universities to have equal power over the Medical School.

"2. Courses of Lectures to be given, during the Winter Session, on the following subjects:—Anatomy, Animal Economy, Surgery, Practice of Physic, Theory of Physic, Materia Medica, Clinical Medicine, and Midwifery, and a course of Lectures on Botany during the Summer.

"3. Lecturers on these subjects to be appointed or confirmed before the ensuing Session, or when the state of the School shall be thought to require this nomination.

"4. As the appointment of the Lecturers by a general meeting of both Colleges, having no corporate capacity, might not be deemed valid by the separate Faculties, it is proposed that the nomination to the Lectureships shall belong alternately to each, neither appointing twice successively to the same Lectureship, and that the appointment thus made by one College shall be confirmed by the other; both Faculties entering a regulation in their minutes, binding themselves to this mode of alternate nomination and mutual confirmation.

"5. Lecturers having been named by Marischal College on Anatomy, Surgery, and Materia Medica, before the present plan of joint patronage was thought of, it is recommended that these appointments should in the meantime be confirmed by King's College, and that the first nomination to the vacant Lectureships should proceed from the Faculty of King's College, and be confirmed by Marischal College.

"6. In case the Professors of Medicine of the Colleges should at any time wish to give Courses of Lectures, it will be advisable to reserve the Theory and Practice of Physic for them, the choice of either subject lying with the Professor that first undertakes the duty of lecturing. The appointment of Lecturers on these subjects may therefore be considered as ad interim.

"7. Should any of the Lecturers allow a Session to pass without giving a regular Course, his appointment is to be declared void, unless he shall have been prevented from doing so by bad health, or such reasons as may be deemed satisfactory by the College with which the next nomination to his lectureship lies.

"8. After the first nominations, when a vacancy is to be supplied in any of the established Courses, the College whose turn it is shall appoint a Lecturer within six months after the vacancy has occurred ; two meetings of the Faculty having been held, at a month's interval, to consider the best mode of supplying it, and the claims of different candidates.

"9. To facilitate the arrangements necessary in opening and conducting the different Courses, it is recommended that a Standing Committee be appointed by each of the Faculties, to co-operate in superintending and promoting the objects of the Institution ; and that a Report of the state of the Medical School be made at least once a year, by this Joint Committee, to a General Meeting of the Faculties of both Universities."

<sup>1</sup> 1780, May 6. Rev. Robert Memis is granted £6 per annum for three years towards formation of a botanic garden. (See also T. C. Reg., lxiv., 196, 230.)

1782. Dr. William Chalmers includes instruction in botany in his scheme of a Medical Academy. (Aberd. Jnl., 4th Feb.) Never carried into effect.

1787. Mr. Memis advertises a class in Theory and Practice of Botany. (Aberd. Jnl., 15th May.)

1792. Rev. Alexander Smith advertises a class. (Aberd. Jnl., 13th May ; T. C. Reg., lxvi., 249 ; lxvii., 56.) Continued yearly till 1799, when he became minister of Chapel of Garioch. D.D., 1814.

Confirmed by King's Coll., 16th Apr. "1834, March 15. Some of Dr. Ewing's students prosecute him before the Sheriff for £8 6s. 8d. damage in bilking them of  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a course of surgery. He began Nov. 4 and their ruffing, which he mistook for applause, made him end 12 March, giving only 58 meetings, of which only 41 available in a certificate, 17 being examinations. He had been absent 27 times, besides raising his fee from 2 to 3 guineas. The action before Sheriff Watson amuses the public and frightens him; he resumes teaching, gets the Principal to go with him to his class, where Dewar blames him in his own presence. In April he terminates, turns restive, and sends long letters to the Senatus, wishing to know whether they account his course complete now : to which such answers as they deserved were sent. Dr. Ewing's class had been most disorderly, a subject being sometimes placed in the desk." (Knight.) Demitted 21 Aug., 1834.

1839, Sept. 3. William Henderson : lecturer on Materia Medica in Marischal College.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> On 4th October, 1838, the Senatus of King's College declined to consent to the appearance of the advertisement of the classes of the Joint Medical School which had been annually sanctioned for the twelve preceding years. This refusal was mainly based on the contention that the King's College Senatus should have been consulted as to the amount of accommodation allotted to Medical Classes in the new buildings of Marischal College, in terms of Article 10 in the agreement entered into by the Universities in 1818, as recorded in the Minutes of King's College, on 6th July of that year, viz. :—

"10. An equal number of classes to be taught at each University, if required, and deemed expedient by either. In the mean time, as a room has been built at Marischal College for the Anatomical Lectures, and as great difficulties attending the due supply of preparations, etc., would be increased, by changing the place of teaching, the Anatomical Course may be given at Marischal College—the other Courses at King's or Marischal Colleges, as may be agreed on by the Committee."

This entry did not appear in the corresponding Marischal College Minute of 19th May, 1818, but was duly intimated by King's College to the Commissioners of 1826-30. (Evidence, IV., 180.)

On 20th November, 1838, Mar. Coll. resolved to enquire of King's Coll. "whether they possess any original paper from which the regulations in their minute of 6th July, 1818, were copied". King's Coll. not unnaturally resented this enquiry as equivalent to demanding a proof that their records "had not been vitiated". A copy of the ten regulations in the handwriting of Dr. Skene was produced by King's Coll.; but "only two gentlemen who had a share in the business of this [Marischal] University in 1818 are now alive and their recollections do not supply any information respecting the tenth article".

On 11th April, 1839, the King's Coll. Senatus unanimously resolved "that all connection with the Marischal College in reference to the Medical School shall cease from and after the close of the Session," it being "inexpedient and even dangerous to maintain any further intercourse with Marischal College respecting the Medical School, when the letter and spirit of the original agreement have been so palpably violated". The Mar. Coll. Senatus, while denying "the allegation that they have violated either the letter or the spirit of the original agreement," and finding "a much nearer resemblance to a violation of that agreement in the refusal by members of King's College or its Senatus to sanction the usual advertisement of the Medical Classes," unanimously resolved, on 11th July, "that the agreement entered into by the two Colleges in 1818 in regard to the Medical School and all the arrangements depending upon that agreement are terminated". Extracts from their Records were printed by both Colleges.

(Buik of Reg.)

"[signed] Ro Paterson, principall."

In 1697, Main is designated Sacrist. A year after he was appointed Janitor, we find him mortifying some house property towards the support of a bursar of his own kin, the augmentation of the salaries of the Principal and Regents, and the reparation of the fabric of the College (Vol. I., p. 328). John Davidson appears, 1688-1720, as "porter," a term now used to denote the sacrist's subordinate; so Alexander Brebner, under-porter, 1706-20, and porter, 1720-47. John Gibb, porter, 1747-53. Other under-porters were: James Walker, 1709; Peter Robertson, 1713; James Silver, 1739; Samuel Duncan, 1744.

1719. William Fowler.

Died 1753.

<sup>1</sup> This term does not occur in the Foundation Charter, but every student is directed to pay two shillings yearly to the "communis apparitor" or "bedellus".

1753, April 10. John Gibb.

Died 1788. (See an amusing elegy in Caledonian Mag., March, 1789.)
Robert Duncan, porter 1753-81; John Arthur, porter 1781-88.

1788, Sept. 6. John Arthur.

Died 1808. George Pirie, porter 1788-1808. Election of sacrist and porter in future to be annual.

1808, Feb. 26. George Pirie.

Died 1837, "a good servant" (Knight). James Bain, porter 1808, "reprimanded and cautioned 1815," "general conduct complained of and reprobated" 1819, "unanimously dismissed" 1826. James Diack, porter 1826-1837.

1837, Sept. 16. James Diack.

Died 1843. John Cooper, porter 1837-43, had been sub-porter 1836-7.

1843, April 7. John Cooper.

Died 1873. John Colvin, porter 1843, succeeded Cooper as Sacrist at Marischal College in 1873; at King's Coll., 1879; resigned 1891; died 1895; portrait by A. D. Reid in possession of University. (See "John," his pilgrimage and his portrait, Aberd., 1892.) The reign of John Cooper and John Colvin extended over fifty-four years; that of John Thomson, John Smith, and John Begg, at King's College, over sixty-six years; so that the name John came to be regarded as a generic vocative for all college servants.

Dissenting minister, Deptford. (Diploma voucher of 31st July.)

Alexander Cruden (of the Concordance, then a bookseller in London: see Vol. I., p. 444) writes 5th Aug., 1736, to Principal Osborn,

"I received on the 2d current, Mr Milner's Diploma with a Letter from Mr Verner to Dr Anderson and self. The Doctor has prevailed so far as to get £15 for the Diploma, which I received Yesterday, and he thinks he deserves for this and all his good services a Couple of Pieces, and had a sort of a promise from me to write you so much. . . . Dr. Doddridge was lately in Town and he gave me five Guineas as an Acknowledgment for his Diploma. I suggested to him pretty plainly that it was too little, but he said that he had a great Family, etc., and this was all I could get from him. Please to let me know whether I shall remit these five Guineas, or if you have occasion to lay it out here. Dr Doddridge has promised to be a friend to your College. He has ordered me to bind 3 or 4 Volumes of his Sermons in a very handsome manner for your Library, which I propose to send by C. Keith. I sent down an Attestation of the Revd. Mr Abraham Taylor of Deptford, to obtain the Degree of D.D. from you and the College. It is unknown to him. I will engage that he is worthy of it, for he exceeds all the Dissenting Ministers of my acquaintance for Learning, and his character is every way entire. He has been Author of several things, particularly 2 vol. in 8vo. agt. Arianism. It is designed that a Diploma shall be obtained for Mr Taylor in one or other University. I hope no further Delay will be made in this affair. I daresay he will make a much more handsome Remembrance to the University than Dr Doddridge has done." (Mar. Coll. Ch. Ch., "Correspondence, 8".)

1739, June 11. William Braikenridge.

Vicar of New Church, Isle of Wight. Author of Sermons, Lond., 1764, etc. The original attestation in his favour has been preserved:—

DOCTORS OF LAWS.<sup>1</sup>

1727. George Turnbull.

Regent, p. 40. "Their Doctoring in Law commenced no earlier than 1727, and 'tis worth observing that Mr Turnbull their first Doctor was so conscious that their diploma was good for nothing that he afterwards applied to the University of Edinburgh and took a fresh one from them in the year 1732." (Ans. for Gordon, 1744, in Catanach case, Vol. I., p. 71.)

17 ? David Verner.

"Quum mos antiquus et laudabilis semper fuerit ut viri docti literarumque patroni insigni aliquo et eximio honoris titulo ornarentur; Nos, Gymnasiarcha et Professores Universitatis Marischallanae Aberdonensis, loci et officii memores, et nobiscum reputantes, virum pium probum et eruditum A.B. magnos in omni scientia utili fecisse progressus, multumque rei publicae literariae profecisse; Propterea Nos dictum A. B. Juris Utriusque tam Civilis quam Canonici Doctorem creamus declaramus et constituimus, omnibus et singulis illius gradus privilegiis ornamus, omni denique auctoritate jure honore frui ac uti volumus quibus Juris Utriusque quivis Doctor frui ac uti possit: Quod ut felix faustumque sit Deum er Optimum Maximum comprecamur. In cujus rei fidem diploma hocce doctoratus instrumentum magno Universitatis sigillo nostrisque chirographis muniendum curavimus. Datum Aberdoniae, etc." (Knight's MS.)

"Viri honorandi plurimumque colendi.

"Cum scholae grammaticae, assidua cura fuerim occupatus, charissimae uxoris morbo gravissimo praepeditus, morte privignae unice dilectae, aliisque rebus per aliquot menses distentus, nec tempus vacivum nec animi perturbatio me ad vos, literas quas oportuit dare sinebant; quibus de causis, ut mihi ignoscatis, submitte peto. Hanc autem primam occasionem vobis quam maximas possum gratias agendi libentissime arripui, qui non solum aliquot ante annos me gradu A.M. ornare dignati fueritis, sed altiorem insuper gradum, LL.D., scilicet, in me perbenigne nuper contuleritis. Hujus tam immeriti favoris me numquam esse obliturum. 'Dum memor ipse mei, dum spiritus hos reget artus,' libentissime spondeo, sin autem ad apicem scholae nostrae unquam evectus fuero, cujus gratia hanc dignitatem a vobis petii, me nunquam immemorem vestri beneficii, at vobis semper devinctissimum habebitis. Atque ne etiam nunc prorsus ingratus videar, decem libras aureas, nempe 80 : 10 : 0, ad vos per mihi charissimum Adamum Andersonum mitti curavi, in aedificia nova vestri collegii insumendas; quas ut testimonium animi vestrae Societati amicissimi, quamvis non equidem pro tanto munere satis amplas, rerum tamen mearum tenuitati praesenti convenientes, amice accipiat animo quam maxime submitto orat obsecratque (Catanach papers.) Author of Catalogue of books in library of St. Paul's School, 1743.

1743, May 31. James Catanach.

Adv. in Aberdeen, 1731. Civilist at King's Coll., 1745-60. LL.D. there, 1748.

"Att the Marischall College of Aberdeen, May 31st, 1743.

"The Faculty being duly and met and constitute, compeared Mr James Catanach, advocate in Aberdeen, and applyed to them desiring that he might be admitted to the tryall and examination of his qualifications as Candidate for the degree of Doctor of Laws in this University, and, if found qualified, craved that he might be honoured with that degree ; Which request the Faculty finding highly reasonable, and from their personall acquaintance with him being fully satisfied of his moral character, he was examined and tryed accordingly by Dr Verner by the appointment of the Faculty, and being found truly well qualified in a strict examination, the Faculty unanimously agreed to create the said Mr James Catanach Doctor of Laws, and appointed the diploma for the said degree to be forthwith extended in due form and signed and sealed."

This degree was conferred for a special purpose, and its validity formed the subject of an important decision by the House of Lords. (Vol. I., pp. 69, 70.)

"I must beg you would present my most grateful acknowledgments to your society for the public mark of their esteem, which you say they are disposed to confer upon me.<sup>1</sup> I embrace with so deep and just a sense of their goodness the substance of that honour they do me, that I hope it may plead my pardon with them if I do not accept the form. I have been, Sir, for several years a member of the University of Cambridge, and formerly (when I had some thoughts of the profession) took a Bachelor of Laws degree there ; since that time, tho' long qualified by my standing, I have always neglected to finish my course, and claim my Doctor's degree. Judge, therefore, whether it will not look a slight, and some sort of contempt, if I receive the same degree from a Sister University. I certainly would avoid giving any offence to a set of men, among whom I have passed so many easy, and I may say, happy hours of my life ; yet shall ever retain in my memory the obligations you have laid me under, and be proud of my connection with the University of Aberdeen." (Mason's Memoir of Gray, 1775, p. 318.)

Ph.D. and F.R.S. Author of various Scientific Papers. Rec. by Professor Clark.

<sup>1</sup> On this date the Senatus approved the following Report submitted by a Committee appointed, 23rd February, to consider "whether by any change in the present system the interests of Literature and Science can be benefited" (supra, p. 93).

"The Committee having considered the whole subject and reasoned at length thereon, were unanimously of opinion:—

"1. That any resolutions on this subject ought not to prejudice the claims of parties who have already left College, or who may be entitled to degrees under the general principles hitherto in operation.

"2. That no higher degree should hereafter be granted to any one who has not previously taken the degree of M.A. under examination, unless in the case of parties who have attained high and acknowledged eminence in Classical Literature, Science or Theology.

1850, Nov. 30. Andrew Morton Brown.

DOCTORS OF MEDICINE.<sup>1</sup>

1713. Richard Stoughton.

Paid £28 Scots (£2 6s. 8d. ster.) to library. (Accts.)

1714, June 17. Joseph Cam. [Hereford.]

John Spink.

“Licentiates of the Archbishoprick of Canterbury.” Same fee. Spink was author of Quackery unmask’d, Lond., 1711; Venereal patient’s refuge, Lond., 1717, etc.

<sup>1</sup> “There were probably no degrees granted till after 1700 and the appointment of a Professor of Medicine. Attestations from two or three physicians continued to be the practice for a long time. Cases, &c., sent to the candidate for solution, in several instances. No certain account of theses being written or required [See 1784, 1791, 1820]. . . . Till 1794, Nov. 20, the diploma was granted in the name of the Professor of Medicine, the rest signing it. Professor Stuart introduced a new form in the name of the Principal and Professors.” (Knight.)

The names of the earlier graduates were taken by Professor Knight from entries of payments for medical degrees in the College Accounts. It seems not unlikely that certain other payments, not explicitly for medical degrees, were really made by M.D.’s. Thus Mr. Matthew Mackaile (M.A., 1708, and Professor of Medicine in 1717) pays £4 in 1711 “for diploma”; and in the same year Mr. Gilbert Cuming, and his brother Mr. George Cuming, pay £30 10s. “for diplomas”. So in 1713, Mr. Alex. Lauson; in 1714, Mr. John Anderson, Mr. William Duguid, and Dr. Chalmers’ son; and in 1715, Mr. John Irvin. See all these entries quoted infra, under “Graduates in Arts”.

The form of diploma used by Professor James Gordon (1734-55) ran as follows. The entries in square brackets are amendments introduced (by Professor Beattie) for Professor Alexander Donaldson (1755-93).

“Universis et Singulis hasce Doctoratus Literas visuris lecturis vel audituris, Nos, Jacobus Gordon, saluberrimae Medicinae in alma Supremi Domini Regis Universitate Marischallana Abredonensi [Aberdonensi] Doctor et Professor, actu Regens et Decanus, Salutem.

“Quum mos antiquus et laudabilis semper extiterit [fuerit] ut qui multis sudoribus infessis laboris [multo labore] studioque assiduo literis operam navaverint insigni aliquo et eximio honoris titulo tanquam peracti laboris monumento et clarissimae virtutis praemio dignarentur, ut sequentium seculorum progenies horum exemplo allecta ad persequendas arduas quidem sed pulchras eruditionis ac virtutis vias stimulentur; quumque Nobis satis superque comperit sit Dominus A. B. non solum studiis medicis maxima cum laude per complures annos incubuisse et in eisdem maximos progressus hactenus fecisse, sed et etiam in omni medicinae

Nov. 2. Allexander Garden.

Son to Mr. Garden, minister att Birse, and my own apprentice, after which he studied with Monro and the other Professors att Edr., and after being att Lisbon and other parts abroad, settled at So. Carolina, in Charlestown, as a Physician. N.B. He was very remarkable for his good genius, and a great knowledge in Botany, Mathematicks, etc. [Alumnus, 1726. M. Corp. S., 1748; F.R.S. Most extensive contributor to Correspondence of Linnaeus.]

1754, May 4. Gregory Grant.

Hon. Physician in Edinburgh. [Alumnus, 1747. F.R.C.P. Ed., 1758; President, 1779. Kay's Portraits, Vol. II., xxxviii.]

1755, Jan. 11. Peter McKenzie, Scoto-Britannus.

Surgeon of Coll. Leighton's Regmt. of foot. Upon examination in person and solving an Aphorism of Hypocrates and a Case of medicine was found very capable. N.B. I passed my dues, and he payed 2½ Guineas for the Librery dues, and writting the diploma. [See Min. of 9th Jan.]

1755, May 27. David Cohen.

From good attestations from Edr. and London, got a degree of M.D., and was going to Africa to practise. The full dues were paid for the diploma by Baillie Dingwall. [Cert. Corp. S., 1799.]

Sept. 4.<sup>1</sup> John Gordon Cuming of Pitlurg.

Hon. Son of Professor Gordon, then on his return from Paris. Diploma signed by Dr. Gordon a few days before his death. This diploma was signed by my father a few days before his death, when I was at London, upon my return from Paris. No attestations nor dues were demanded.

Sept. 22. William Grant.

The last diploma ever signed by my father, a very little time before his death. It was transmitted him (gratis) to London at the time I was there. Whether he had attestations or not I can't say, but he had no occasion for them, as his qualifications are sufficiently known to entitle him to that honor. [L.R.C.P., 1763. Pract. in London. Author of works on Fever.]

James Anderson, Jamaica.

Dues, £15 15s. in Accts. See Min. of 5th Sept., 1754. [Alumnus, 1737. M. Corp. S., 1761.]

[James] Gifford.

Dues, £10 10s in Accts. [Cert. Corp. S., 1756. Navy Hosp. Surg.]

On 12th Nov., 1755, William Thomas Jackson, Student of Physick at London, Candidate for the degree of M.D., desires that he may be permitted to write on the bilious colic, he being to practise in Jamaica. This is sanctioned (Min.), but his names does not appear in the lists.

1756.<sup>2</sup> William Monke.

Apothecary and Surgeon in London: eminent in that line, and in great practice. Drs. Letherland and Clarke.

David Ramsay Karr.

Personally known by Dr. Donaldson. Drs. Gibson and Ormston. He gave to the Society a Treatise on the Putrid Fever which raged in the Fleet commanded by Admiral Boscawen, in whose ship he served as chief Surgeon for several years, and was afterwards appointed Surgeon and Physician at Portsmouth. [Principal Surg. to Dockyard, 1779; Med. Reg. Salary £100, with a house, and 2d. per month from each man in the yard.]

Joseph Fry.

Was attested to the satisfaction of the Society. The certificate is mislaid, but Dr. Donaldson, from recollection, thinks that the certificate was signed by Dr. Duncan and another eminent physician in London. [Senior Physician, Gloucester Infirmary.]

[William] Boddum [sic] of Mecklenbergh-Strelitz.

Drs. Saunders and Leo. N.B. Discovered to be the Empiric Brodum from inattention of Dr. Leo. "Dr. Saunders told me that he was deceived by Dr. Leo, a Jew living in his neighbourhood, with regard to Brodum on his first arrival in London. I believe there was no great deception in the case. At least Dr. S. appeared to have given himself no trouble in making the necessary examination before granting the certificate, wishing to oblige the Jew, and caring very little for the reputation of Marischal College. C. S."

[In 1801, Brodum applied for a new diploma, saying he had lost his former one. The College denied that any one had been granted him, the name being Boddum in Dr. Donaldson's Catalogue. He recovered his diploma, however, and sent it to Mr. Chalmers, printer, his quack medicine vendor, when the College had the mortification to see the name properly written, and the diploma perfectly regular. The opinion of Solicitor-General Blair was taken as to the power of the College to degrade Brodum for "notorious and impudent quackery, . . . and the immoral tendency of many passages in his various publications". Mr. Blair held it "to be clear that an Incorporation has by law no power to expel its own members. For altho' the admission of a member most commonly proceeds upon an act of the incorporated body, yet after being so admitted, the privileges which he thereby acquires become a matter of civil right or property which cannot be taken from him, except upon legal grounds and by the sentence of a competent Court. Universities stand indeed upon a footing somewhat different from other Incorporations, in so far as the original constitution of the University, whether created by foundation charter or otherwise, most commonly delegates to the Rector or some other officebearer in the University a jurisdiction over its own members, which implies a power of expulsion where there is sufficient cause for it. And the foundation charter of the Marischal College of Aberdeen seems to bestow upon the Rector a power of jurisdiction sufficiently ample for this purpose. Altho' it is rather an unfavourable circumstance that no one instance can be found of the rectoral jurisdiction having been exercised to the effect of recalling the degree of Doctor of Medicine once bestowed, either in the University of Aberdeen, or in those of Edinburgh or St. Andrews, which are expressly referred to in the charter. . . . The distinction between a Quack, that is to say a person who takes it upon him to practise physick without having received a proper education and without being graduated Doctor of Medicine, and a regular Physician who has been bred to the business and authorised to practise, is very well known. But amongst those who have received the degree of Doctor of Medicine from an University entitled to grant such degrees (which is the case of Dr. Brodum), I do not know exactly where the line is to be drawn, or what degree of ostentation or ignorance is to fix upon a gentleman of this description the imputation of Quackery, so as to afford a legal ground for depriving him of his degree. . . . The memorialists will consider therefore whether, under all the circumstances, it may not be most prudent for them to submit in silence as they have hitherto done, to a very unpleasant mortification, and rather endeavour if possible to draw good out of evil, by making the case of Dr. Brodum a lesson of caution and circumspection to themselves for the future, in the bestowing Academical honours." Drs. Sanders and Shaw. [New Regulations<sup>1</sup> dispensed with "in regard <sup>1</sup> On 15th April the following regulations were adopted (printed in 1810). They remained in force till 1825.

"Regulations with respect to the mode of conferring Medical Degrees.

"I. No person shall be received as a candidate for the degree of M.D. unless he have laid before the Senatus Academicus satisfactory evidence of his possessing a good and respectable character, and of his having received a liberal education.

"II. No person shall be received as a candidate for the degree already mentioned until he have produced to the Senatus Academicus certificates of his having attended a course of lectures in Anatomy, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Practice of Physic and Botany (if he has had an opportunity of studying the branch last mentioned) at some University or celebrated School, under Professors or Teachers of reputation.

"III. In every case where the candidate for a degree in Medicine shall happen to be in Aberdeen or at a convenient distance from that city, he shall be required to appear before the Senatus Academicus, and in their presence be examined by the Medical and other professors that the application had taken place before the certifiers could be made acquainted with the regulations". (Min.)]

on the different branches of Medical Science, on his knowledge of the Greek and Latin languages and on such other branches of literature as they shall see proper.

"IV. When the candidate for a degree in Medicine is so circumstanced, by reason of his distance from Aberdeen, that he cannot appear in person to be examined, he may be recommended and attested by two Physicians. In this case, these Physicians must themselves be regular graduates in Medicine; they must be known either personally or by reputation to the Professor of Medicine, or to some of the members of the Faculty; and they must attest that what is contained in the first and second regulations is, in all respects, applicable to the Candidate; that they have examined him on the different branches of Medical Science and are satisfied by his answers that his acquirements are such as to entitle him to the degree of M.D.; or in cases where from distance of place such examination cannot be obtained, that they have been long personally acquainted with him, and know that his medical education is as has been above specified, that he has been for years in established practice as a Physician, and in that capacity has rendered himself useful and respectable.

"V. When the candidate has been settled for years, and still is in respectable medical practice, in the East or West Indies or other foreign parts, so that his situation precludes his presenting himself for examination, either at Aberdeen or by the attesting physicians; in such cases the attestations shall bear, in the most ample terms, that the candidate's moral character is, and his education has been such, as are prescribed in the first and second regulations; that his practice has rendered him useful and respectable in his profession; and that the attesters know him to be in all respects worthy of the degree which he solicits.

"VI. Every Candidate for a Medical degree, if required, shall declare and promise that he neither has, nor at any future period of his life shall have, the smallest connection with vending, or patronizing in the way of trade, any patent Specifics or Drugs, or what are commonly called Quack Medicines, nor allow his name to be used in any advertisements or publications of that nature; and that before receiving his degree he shall present to the Faculty a formal letter to the above purpose.

"VII. No degree of M.D. shall be granted till the Senatus Academicus have taken into consideration the character and qualifications of the candidate at two different meetings to be held at the interval of fourteen days; except in cases of urgency, which cases shall be determined by the Faculty."

[L.R.C.S., Lond. 1812.]

Aug. 7. Oliver Thorndike.

Drs. John Barclay and Rob. Anderson, Edinburgh. On 9th Sept., 1818, "Mr. Oliver Thorndike, an American gentleman from Boston, who has gone thro' a three years' course of medical instruction at Edinburgh, and is desirous of taking the degree of M.D. at this University, is here at present and offers himself to the Faculty for Examination". He submits a Thesis,<sup>1</sup> "De tarda concoctione" [Edin., 1820], and shows proficiency in translating from Celsus and Hippocrates, but when examined in Anatomy, Pharmaceutical Chemistry, and Practice of Medicine, "being sensible of his deficiencies expressed his desire of withdrawing himself as a candidate". On 4th Aug., 1820, he was again examined by Professors Livingston, French, and Davidson, who "observed with great pleasure the very decided improvement he had made in medical knowledge since his last examination".

<sup>1</sup> On 21st January, 1825, a Sub-Committee, appointed by the Medical Committees of King's and Marischal Colleges (supra, p. 66), reported in favour of certain changes in the method followed since 1808 in conferring degrees in Medicine. On 7th March the Marischal College Senatus approved this report, with some slight modifications, and ordered the new regulations to be printed as follows:—

"I. EVERY Person offering himself as a Candidate for the degree of M.D., shall, 1st, produce satisfactory evidence of his possessing a good character, and of his having attained the age of twenty-five years; and, 2dly, shall lay before the Senatus Academicus Certificates of his having obtained the Degree of A.M. in this or some other University, after the usual examinations; of his having attended Courses of Lectures on Anatomy, Surgery, Chemistry, Materia Medica, the Theory and Practice of Physic, and Botany, in this or some other University, or celebrated School, under Professors or Teachers of reputation; and of his having attended, for three or more years, a Medical Hospital, containing the average number of at least eighty Patients.

"II. AFTER the Senatus Academicus shall have been fully satisfied on the above preliminary points, the Applicant shall be received as a Candidate for the Degree of M.D.; and shall be required to appear before the Senatus Academicus, during the month of April or October; and in their presence be examined, by the Medical and other Professors, on the different branches of Medical Science,—on his knowledge of the Greek and Latin Languages,—and on such other branches of Literature as they shall see proper. If fully satisfied with the qualifications of the Candidate, the University shall confer on him the Degree which he solicits.

"III. When an applicant for the degree of M.D. has been settled for ten years as a Medical Practitioner, and is still in respectable medical practice in Britain, in the East or West Indies, or other Foreign parts, and is entirely precluded by his situation from presenting himself for examination; in such cases, before he be received as a candidate, there shall be laid before the Senatus Academicus satisfactory evidence of his having been ten years a Medical Practitioner, and of his still continuing to be in respectable medical practice,—of his having obtained the Degree of A.M. in some University, after the usual examinations,—of his

Hon. Surgeon, London, "who has greatly distinguished himself by his researches respecting Pathological Anatomy . . . on the motion of Sir James having attended the above specified courses of lectures,—and either of his having a Surgeon's diploma from the Royal College of Surgeons of London, Edinburgh, Dublin, or Glasgow, or of his having been regularly educated in the Medical School of Aberdeen. After the Senatus Academicus shall have been fully satisfied on these points, such person may be received as a candidate for the degree of M.D., and if he shall then produce attestations from two Physicians who are themselves regular graduates in Medicine, and known either personally or by reputation to the Professor of Medicine, or to some of the Members of the Senatus, bearing on their honour and conscience, that they, from full knowledge, certify the said Candidate to be of irreproachable moral character, respectable and useful in his profession, and, in their judgment, well qualified in every respect to have the highest degree in Medicine conferred on him, the University may in such circumstances bestow on the candidate that degree.

"IV. These regulations are not to be understood as precluding the University from conferring Honorary degrees in Medicine on highly distinguished individuals, who cannot be expected to comply with them, and whom it would be improper to subject to them; but in all such cases the degree shall be conferred unsolicited and free of expence.

"[As the requisition respecting the degree of A.M. might prove injurious to some medical students, whose education is now in progress, were it to take effect immediately, it is resolved that it shall not come into force till the year 1830.]"

On 27th April it was unanimously resolved "That the third regulation with respect to the mode of conferring Medical degrees, inserted in the Minute of the 7th March, shall be rescinded, and that in future every candidate for the Degree of M.D. from this University shall be required to appear personally and submit to an examination in presence of the University".

"A mistake," observes Professor Knight, "was soon discovered of a practical kind. The age of 25 was allowed to remain, whereas it ought obviously to have been altered, so as to agree with that followed by all other Universities of Scotland. This age was also unnecessary, when examination was required. It was still more so, because we required along with it the degree of A.M., which Edinburgh, Glasgow and St. Andrews did not [tho' King's Coll. did: Off. and Grad., p. 160]. It proved injurious to our own alumni, who went to graduate at Edinburgh, after taking A.M. at our strict Examinations in Mar. Coll.: about 10 or 12 M.D.'s of Edinburgh 1825-35 were alumni of ours. It was injurious to all who went abroad after ending their medical education, since they could not be expected to return to Aberdeen from situations in distant parts, or to stay in this country till they were 25."

The personal examination cause prevailed very gradually. Dr. William Cullen, feeling the reproach in 1774, drew up a memorial blaming in severe terms the practice of Aberdeen and St. Andrews. The Duke of Buccleuch, to whom Cullen submitted this memorial, gave it to Adam Smith, who, in a long letter, defended the practice, and contended for free trade in degrees in a very pleasant way. <sup>1</sup> On 21st Jan., 1834, Professor Skene got a committee appointed, consisting of himself, Drs. Macrobin and Clark, to frame new regulations for M.D. After much discussion, and without the consent of King's College, a set of regulations was approved and printed in April, 1838, the age being reduced to 21, but the degree of M.A. being retained.

<sup>2</sup> After the quarrel with King's College in 1839 (supra, p. 69), and the dissolution of the Joint Medical School, each University framed new regulations for M.D. For King's Coll., see Off. and Grad., p. 160. On 19th Dec., 1840, the Marischal College Senatus minute "that they have long regarded a high standard of preliminary education as desirable for graduates in medicine . . . that they long entertained the hope that a degree in Arts, or a standard in merit approaching thereto, as recommended by the Royal Commission of Visitation of 1826-30, would ere now have been required in candidates for medical degrees in all the Universities of Scotland; that the University of Old Aberdeen, which at one time required such a standard, has recently receded from it; that the University of St. Andrews has made no approach to the proposed standard; while the Universities of Edinburgh and Glasgow continue to subject candidates to a preliminary examination in Latin only; and that having had the unanimous opinion of their medical professors and lecturers, that so high a standard of preliminary examination as is desirable cannot, while other Universities do not concur in it, be maintained without serious injury to the medical school of this University—they feel themselves compelled to adopt a lower standard. . . . Also having before them the unanimous recommendation of their medical professors and lecturers in favour of introducing the inferior degree of Bachelor of Medicine, they approve of the same, with the exception of Dr. Cruickshank, who dissents”.

The regulations approved and printed in 1840, and in force until 1849, were as follows:—

“ CURRICULUM.

“ 1.—Four years of attendance on Medical Classes, of which one year may be passed at any recognised Medical School; but three, at least, must be passed in a University, including one, at least, in this University. The attendance, in each year, to embrace not fewer than two Medical Classes of six months each; or one of six months, with two of three months each. But it will be held equivalent to one of four years of such attendance in a University, 1st, in a Master of Arts, to have attended one Medical Class while passing through the Curriculum of Arts; or 2dly, in any Student, to have attended a Medical Class, in each of two years, along with Classes in the Curriculum of Arts. The University attendance to include the following eight Classes, each for a Course of six months—ANATOMY, PRACTICAL ANATOMY, CHEMISTRY, MATERIA MEDICA, INSTITUTES OF MEDICINE, SURGERY, PRACTICE OF MEDICINE, MIDWIFERY, and the following three Classes, each for a Course of three months—BOTANY, PRACTICAL CHEMISTRY, MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE.

“ 2.—Eighteen months of attendance on the Medical and Surgical Practice of an Hospital containing not fewer than Eighty Beds, along with attendance for six months on Lectures on Clinical Medicine, and for three months on Lectures on Clinical Surgery.

“ 3.—Six months of Compounding and Dispensing of Medicines in the Laboratory of an Hospital, or of a Public Dispensary, or of a Licensed General Practitioner, or of a regular Dispensing Druggist.

“ 4.—It will be held equivalent to the Curriculum prescribed in the three Regulations foregoing, to have obtained, upon examination, a Diploma or a Licence, in Medicine or in Surgery, from a University or other Authority established by law within the United Kingdom, and to have subsequently attended Medical Classes in this University for one year [altered 24th September, 1842, to ‘during one Winter Session’].

“ EXAMINATIONS.

“ 5.—The Examination Terms to be two in each year—the first to commence on the 20th of April, if a Wednesday, but if not, on the first Wednesday thereafter; the second on the 13th of October, if a Wednesday, but if not, on the first Wednesday thereafter.

“ 6.—Every Candidate to undergo at least three separate Professional Examinations—the first PHARMACEUTICAL, the second SURGICAL, the third MEDICAL—to be conducted partly in writing, as well as viva voce, and partly by demonstration. [Continued on next page.]

<sup>1</sup> On 9th Dec., 1848, "in consequence of the number of candidates who have presented themselves at this University for Medical Degrees, since the adoption of the present regulations [of 1840], being so small," a committee was appointed "to consider if they can be so modified or altered as to increase the number of Medical Graduates". As the outcome of a Report from this Committee, the Senatus, on 17th March, 1849, adopted a revised set of regulations as under. The more important changes are italicised.

"CURRICULUM.

"1.—Four years of attendance on Medical Classes, of which two years may be passed at a recognised Medical School; but two must be passed in a University, and one of them at least in this University. The attendance, etc. [as in Regs. of 1840]. In regard to Practical Anatomy, every candidate must produce a certificate that he has dissected all the parts of the human body.

"2.—Eighteen months, etc. [as in 1840].

"3.—Six months, etc. [as in 1840].

"EXAMINATIONS.

"4. There shall be one Examination Term in each year, commencing on the second Tuesday of April.

"5.—Every candidate who is not a Master of Arts, nor possessed of a Diploma or a Licence in Medicine or in Surgery from any authority established by Law, within the United Kingdom, shall undergo a Preliminary Examination on the Latin Language (the book to be used being Celsus, 'De Medicina'); on the Etymology of such terms in the Medical Sciences as are derived from the Latin and the Greek; and on the elements of Mental Science (the book to be used being Abercrombie, 'On the Intellectual Powers'). The Preliminary Examination may be undergone at the option of the candidate at any Examination Term after the expiry of the First Session of his attendance on Medical Classes.

"6.—Every candidate shall undergo two separate Professional Examinations; the first on the Theoretical, and the second on the Practical branches of Medical Science, as under:—

"First Examination: Anatomy, Physiology, Botany, Chemistry, Materia Medica.

"Second Examination: Medical Jurisprudence, Midwifery, Surgery, Practice of Medicine.

"Physiology will comprehend the Doctrines of Physics illustrative of Animal Structure and Function.

"7.—Any candidate that so desires shall be admitted to the two Professional Examinations at different terms, viz., to the First Examination at the end of his third year of Medical Classes; and, provided he be twenty-one years of age, to the Second Examination at the end of his fourth year. But no longer interval than two years will be allowed to intervene between the two Examinations without a full renewal of the previous one.

"8.—In order to be received, etc. [practically identical with Reg. 9 of 1840].

"PRACTITIONERS.

"9.—It will be held equivalent, etc. [practically identical with Reg. 4 of 1840]. The Senatus reserves to itself the right of exempting Medical Practitioners of experience and high respectability from residence at the University previous to Examination.

"10.—Practitioners who may be exempted from residence shall undergo two separate Professional Examinations, which may be taken at the same or at two different terms; the First Examination to include Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology and Therapeutics; the Second, Practice of Medicine, Surgery, Midwifery, and Medical Jurisprudence. And the competency of their knowledge in these branches will be tested by examination in the following books, viz., Quain's 'Elements of Anatomy,' Carpenter's 'Manual of Physiology,' Williams' 'Principles of Medicine,' Watson's 'Lectures on the Principles and Practice of Physic,' Miller's 'Principles and Practice of Surgery,' Churchill's 'Theory and Practice of Midwifery,' Taylor's 'Manual of Medical Jurisprudence'.

"CONFERRING OF DEGREES.

"11.—The Degree of Bachelor of Medicine may be conferred on any Candidate who has passed the prescribed Examinations.

"12.—The Degree of Doctor of Medicine may be conferred on any Candidate after passing the prescribed Examinations, who is twenty-two years of age, or on any Candidate who has been at least twelve months a Bachelor of Medicine of this University.

"13.—Graduates who have attended the several Medical Classes in this University, will be charged no Graduation Fees; but from all others the usual Fees will be required."

On the 23rd Feb., 1850, Prof. Clark moved, that no candidate be admitted to Examination "without previous residence here as a Medical Student". This proposal was remitted for opinion to the Medical Committee, who reported unfavourably to the change. On 7th Oct., 1850, the Senatus, on the recommendation of a Special Committee, approved certain alterations on the Regulations of 1849, viz. :—

"9 (Second Clause).—The Senatus reserves to itself the right of exempting Medical Practitioners of experience and good moral character from residence at the University previous to Examination.

"10 [Second clause, 'And the competency,' etc., to be deleted].

"11 [Add].—Practitioners may be admitted without residence to Examination for the Degree of M.B., who have held a Diploma or a Licence in Medicine or in Surgery for at least five years, and who produce satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and of having been engaged in practice during that period.

"12.—The Degree of M.D. may be conferred on any candidate after passing the prescribed Examinations, who is twenty-two years of age, or on any candidate who has been at least twelve months a Bachelor of Medicine of this University, after residing therein. Practitioners may be admitted, without residence, to Examination for the Degree of M.D. who have held a Diploma or a Licence in Medicine or in Surgery for at least ten years, and who produce satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and of having been engaged in practice during that period. Practitioners who have held for at least three years the Degree of M.B., obtained without residence, may receive the Degree of M.D. upon producing satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and of having been engaged in practice during possession of the inferior degree."

These rules remained in force until 15th April, 1857, when residence for at least one winter session was again made compulsory on all candidates. Infra, p. 172.

ALUMNI AND GRADUATES IN ARTS
OF THE
MARISCHAL COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY
OF

(183)

Painting by William Verelstede

Robert Gordon of Gairloch

1711-1712

ALUMNI AND GRADUATES IN ARTS.

" Robert Gordon of Straloch, who was the first Master of the liberal arts created in the Marishalls College of Aberdeen [presumably in 1597], and one of the Cheife Barrons of the name of the noble and ancient families of the Gordons in the north part of the Kingdom. He wrote learnedly on the Mathematicks, and drew severall geographical maps of almost all the counties and shires in the Kingdome of Scotland." (Cat. Scot. Writers.) Born 1580. Portrait by Jamesone in Robert Gordon's College, Aberdeen, reproduced in this volume. [Dict. Nat. Biog. Spald. Club Misc., I., 29.]

Another name is preserved in the Town Council Register for 31st July, 1601 (Vol. XL., p. 101), when Mr. James Robertson, student of 1595-99, assigns the arrears of a "pension" of twenty merks granted him by Principal Howie.

Among probable early students of note are Thomas Reid (p. 31) and David Wedderburne (p. 63), who were appointed teachers in the Grammar School, 6th Feb., 1602; Patrick Dun (pp. 10, 28, 32); Patrick Copland, benefactor (Vol. I., p. 160); Thomas Reid's brother, Dr. Alexander (Vol. I., pp. 226-236); Andrew Ramsay (Vol. I., p. 186), professor of divinity, Saumur and Edinburgh, and Latin poet; and Gilbert Jack, professor of philosophy, Leyden (Vorst's Oratio funebris). Arthur Johnston, the poet, born circa 1577 (Musa Lat. Aberd., II., xxvii.), and Rector of King's College, 1637, had probably studied at the sister University; and, notwithstanding the comments of Mr. Bulloch in his George Jamesone, pp. 38-41, there is no proof that the painter attended either college.

Statuta et conditiones quibus fidem obstringunt suam qui Accademiae albo ambiunt inscribi.

1. Praeceptoribus accademiae omnibus et singulis debitam quamdiu hic versamur reuerentiam, et eorum doctrinae et disciplinae tam priuatae quam publicae, promptam paratam et uoluntariam obedientiam nos et sponte exhibituros et deo dante fideliter prestituros sancte et relligiose promittimus.
2. Arma nulla nec in gymnasio nec in ciuitatis plateis circumferam, nec cum veteranis studiosis contentionis aut seriae aut jocularis genus inconsultis preceptoribus aut uenia a gymnasiarcha non impetrata suscipiam.
3. Fidem accademiae huic datam, alio ante exactum philosophiae curriculum transmigrando, ni secus parentum impellat autoritas sciens volensque nullorum malo consilio aut hortatu fallam.
4. Legibus denique gymnasii huius et statutis et statuendis pro eiusdem pace et disciplina firmanda et seruanda et subscribimus et nos uolentes subiicimus.

<sup>1</sup> These entries are taken from the original record, which now forms part of Album I. The names, except where otherwise indicated, are autograph. In the MS. no special order is at first traceable in the signatures of each year, but, for convenience of reference, it has been thought desirable to adopt from the outset the alphabetical arrangement under prenames, not under surnames, which afterwards became characteristic of the Marischal College registers. The first, undated, group of names appears to include entrants of different years prior to 1605, and probably subsequent to 1598, when Gilbert Gray became Principal.

Cal. februarij Anno domini Millesimo sexcentesimo decimoquinto [Sess. 1614-15].

Cum a Ministris Baliuis et Senatu presente Episcopo eodemque domino Cancellario deliberaretur quae post obitum D. Mri Gilberti Graij primarij ratio esset iucunda tempore interregni vt sarta tecta maneat Academiae disciplina quoad creetur Primarius omnium calculis et suffragiis in Primarii locum suffectus est Mr. David Vedderburnus interregni huius tempore ad Cal. Augusti Anno dñi 1615 cumque postulante hoc senatu id oneris suscepisset statutum vt in tempus supra prefinitum Primarij partes tum in summa classe docenda tum in publica Academiae disciplina promovenda exequatur eumque vt hoc loco agnoscant et debitam primario reverentiam obedientiam et gratitudinem prestant discipuli omnes solenni interposito iureiurando promittant.

Ab iisdem etiam cautum est vt Regentibus debita exhibeatur obedientia et reverentia ab omnibus promiscue classibus eoque magis illis obsequium prestetur quo maior temporis huius necessitas hoc flagitat.

Ab eodem etiam coetu statutum ne cui discipulo arma aut arcum ferre aut priuatim vsipiam recondere liceat ac ut preceptores per singula cubicula attente et diligenter in ea inquirent et si qua ab inquirentibus deprehensa vt non solum iuxta academiae leges delinquens plectatur sed et arma confiscentur sine vlla prorsus restitutione.

Statutum etiam ne quis maledicum carmen aut libellum famosum conficiat aut confectum conficiendumve promulget vel cum alio quoquam recitando legendo aut impertiendo communicet sed repertum ita supprimat ne in aliorum manus postea vllatenus veniat : qui secus faxit loco auctoris ipsius habitum eum iri ac proinde iisdem poenis quae ipsi maledici carminis artificii debeantur afficiendum.

Cumque disciplinae neglectus nimis quam invaluerit per hoc temporis quo haec statuta decretum ibidem vt tum in has publicis tabulis iam insertas tum in reliquis omnes academiae leges discipuli omnes solenniter iurent et religiose vt restaurata deinceps disciplinae iam collapsae integritate bonarum literarum studiis morumque probitati suus sit in posterum locus.

Et in iuramenti nostri memoriam sic infra omnes subscribimus :—

<sup>3</sup> From the printed Theses of 1625 in the Bodleian Library. Dedicated to Provost Paul Menzies, Dr. Wm. Forbes, "rectori magnifico," and Wm. Guild. The Theses for 1624 have not been traced, and so with many subsequent years, but there can be little doubt that from 1622, when Edward Raban began his work in Aberdeen (Off. and Grad., p. 183), down to at least 1732, infra, hardly a year passed without a print of Marischal Coll. Theses appearing from the local press. Unfortunately not a third of these have survived. The Aberdeen University Library possesses only thirteen (1623, 1631, 1643, 1658, 1659, 1660, 1669, 1673, 1700, 1704, 1708, 1726 and 1732); while the Bodleian has fourteen (1625, 1626, 1627, 1630, 1634, 1637, 1654, 1656, 1657, 1687, 1689, 1693, 1699 and 1714); Glasgow University three (1697, 1712 and 1730); and Mr. Chalmers of Westburn one (1721).

“Nobilissime Comes. Dum Thesibus hisce nostris in publicum prodeuntibus patronum quaero, neminem praeter inclytam celsitudinem vestram inter homines reperio, sub cujus patrocinio in lucem emitterentur. Quis quaeso mihi indignetur, quod te unum ex omnibus compellem? Quin potius aequissimo jure censebor egisse, quod te tam egregium elegerim patronum, prosapia et natalium splendore nobilem, nulli tota Scotia procerum stemmatis antiquitate cedentem, à mille namque et pene sexcentis retro annis, in hodiernum usque diem, Dei gratia, summorum hujus regni principum cognationibus semper innexus perdurus. Certe nobilissimi viri Rob. Kethi praeclara encomia (ob singularem ejus virtutem, qua Camum Danorum ducem fudit fugavitque) Annales Scotici non tacent. Neque inclyti ducis Rob. Kethi, qui amisso patre, et magno propinquorum numero, in pugna Duplinensi, sumptis armis, strenue suorum cladem ultus, Perthum urbem ab hoste inessam cepit, moenia diruit, soloque aequavit, Anno Christi 1332. Fragranti etiam memoria est GEORGIUS avus tuus, qui Rege Iacobo delegatus in Daniam suis splendori et ornamento. At plus tibi laudis adfert, (Clariss. Maecenas) quod ab iis sis oriundus, qui Mariscalli magistratum decursu continuo septingentorum annorum, summa cum fide gesserunt. Sed quorsum tuorum majorum amore, et virtutibus enumerandis abducor, an quia non est quod de te dicam? Nequaquam, eadem tibi virtus, (Nobiliss. Comes) modo qualia iis tibi pariter contigissent tempora. Testantur id, tum eximiae et heroicae admodum illae virtutes (generositas, magnanimitas, animi aequitas, constantia, fides) quae tanquam natura in te amicissime conspirare videntur. Tum singularis illa comitas qua omnes demereris, devincis, omnium benevolentiam amoremque concilias. Modestiam tuam laedere metuerem, si diutius indubitatae tuae laudis praeconio immorarer, unum me posse adicere posse arbitror. Summam esse saeculi nostri felicitatem, quod tu alter GEORGIUS exoriaris qui musas tuas, et causam esse quoque mihi specialem, quod rem geram tuis auspiciis, quia sciz. tuus ille magnus avus, D. Gilbertum Graium avum meum ejusque fratrem Patricium, adeo humaniter benevoleque exceperit et illum Gymnasiarchae, hunc praeceptoris albo, in celebri tua Academia, inter varios quam meritissimos inseruerit, quodque tu me obstringere pergas, dum in eadem Regentis fungi officio permittis, quod licet non promerear, ingratus tamen videbor, nisi aliquo argumento quantumvis exiguo me tibi probarem. Digneris itaque (Nobiliss. Comes) Theses hasce nostras nominis tui splendore collustratas, libenti animo suscipere, cum desunt mihi alia grati animi specimina, quae tanto reponerem patrono. Vale Nobiliss. Comes. Deus op. max. te incolumem diu conservet, ad felicitatem splendidissimae tuae familiae, Reip. utilitatem, et Academiae tuae bonum.”

ALBUM II. (1698-1702 TO 1827-31).

"Mr J.[acobus] M.[oir] An. Dom. 1702. Hi generosi fillii [sic]
Minervae octodecim hujus Academiae Aulae Cathedras donarunt."<sup>1</sup>

[Al. Carnegie, g. ]	Geo. Leslie, g.

And. Reid, ii., iii., iv.	Jac. Chalmers.
Benj. Dumbar ab Hemprigs, ii.	Jac. Gardne, ii.
Car. Forbes, ii.	Jac. Henderson.

<sup>1</sup> This is the opening entry in Album II. All the entries down to 1770 are in the same handwriting. Several of the early lists are obviously copied from the printed Theses (as in 1704, 1708, 1712, 1721, 1726, 1730, 1732—still extant), others, according to Knight, "from names placed on the panels of the window sides of the College Hall. . . . Each regent recorded [in the Theses] his own class in the Magistrand year, adding to the list all the students who had attended any one of the four years." See 1700, p. 275. The graduates are not marked "A.M." till 1742. The letter g appended to a student's name (1698-1749) implies that he came from the Grammar School (see 1692); the numerals i., ii., iii., iv. (1698-1714) imply that he paid chamber maills as a student of the first, second, third, or fourth year respectively.

<sup>1</sup> This list coincides exactly with that in the printed Theses of 1708 in Aberdeen University Library—Praeses, William Smith—dedicated to George, Earl Keith, eldest son of William, ninth Lord Marischal. Lord Keith, who was then a boy of fourteen, about to enter College, is addressed by Professor Smith in highly eulogistic terms. "Te ex prænobili ac longissima heroum serie natum, ad maxima destinasse videtur naturae Author, qui te vultu pulcherrimo, corpore vegeto et decore, animo erecto, et vivaci donavit ingenio. Et tu sollicita nobilissimorum parentum cura, in literis et moribus, pietate et virtute, feliciter hucusque enutritus, praeclaros pro aetatis tuae ratione fecisti progressus; tanta indolis suavitate et innata polles prudentia, ut ab auspiciatissimis hisce principiis et coruscantibus virtutum igniculis, omnium spes et vota amplissima splendidæ tuæ domus incrementa fidenter prae-sagiant. . . . Familiae Marischallanae haeredem Minervam et Themida cum Marte consoci-are summopere decet." In the printed Theses italics are used to distinguish, from the "Candidati," those "qui idem stadium philosophicum cum illis ingressi sed curriculum academicum penitus emensi non sunt".

"ILLUSTRISSIMO, NOBILISSIMO & POTENTISSIMO HEROI, D. GEORGIO, COMITI MARISCHALLO, Domino de KEITH, ALTRIE, ETC.

"Musarum Suarum Fautori & Patrono, omni Honore & observantiâ semper Colendo.

"ILLUSTRISSE HEROS,

"Mihi non diu deliberandum fuit, cui decermina hæc Philosophica nuncuparem, cui nam enim debentur, nisi Tibi Nobilissimo Comiti MARISCHALLO. Tibi enim ac Illustrissimæ Tuæ Familiæ, omnibus Gratitudeinis & Humillimi obsequii vinculis, me astrictum libenter agnosco: quòd enim in Album Professorum Inclytæ Tuæ Academiæ Cooptatus fuerim, ubi quamplurima Vitæ hujus commoda, multos per annos sum nactus: post DEUM Op. Max. Avo Tuo Nobilissimæ Memoriam, & Illustrissimæ Familiæ MARISCHALLANÆ unicè debeo. Urbs etiam hæc Abredonia, tum domi, tum foris, apud exteras gentes clara, claritudinis Suæ atque Famæ, præcipuas mutuatur partes, à benevolentia & generositate, Nobilium Tuorum Progenitorum, qui ibidem fundârunt & redivitibus variis locupletârunt Academiam hanc, è cujus gremio progressi sunt quamplurimi, Pietate & Eruditione insignes, ab Orbe Literario, in summo semper Honore habiti, Urbis & Academiæ decus & ornamentum. Libenti animo descenderem, in antiquitatem Illustrissimæ Familiæ MARISCHALLANÆ, per multas Annorum Centurias enarrandam, in Heroicam etiam & invictam Magnanimitatem, Progenitorum Tuorum Nobilium, & in Regem fidem intemeratam: sed cum publici Regni Annales, hæc omnia abundè testentur, soli Lucem non fœnerabor. Animo etiam lubentissimo descenderem in Heroicas Tuas, tum animi, tum corporis dotes enumerandas, atque innata Virtutum Tuarum semina, in frugiferam messem, jam efflorescentia, quæ te Magnis SCOTIÆ MARISCHALLIS æqualem reddent, sed cum summæ Virtutes Tuæ, omnia mea superent elogia, me reprimam, ne modestiam Tibi adeò connaturalem, offendere videar. Levidente est hoc opusculum Philosophicum & tanto Heroe minimè dignum, est tamen præcipuum atque unicum, quod Tibi offerre valeo, id igitur ut humillimi obsequii & sinceræ gratitudinis indicium, recipere digneris; & ut DEUS Op. Max te diu incolumem conservet pro Familiæ Tuæ Nobilissimæ, Academiæ & omnium bonorum & literatorum commodo, animitus comprecabuntur."

<sup>6</sup> See footnote 11 to 1713-18. On 20th Nov., 1717, A. Orem, A. Ross, J. Clerk, J. Paterson, J. Taylor, W. Henderson, and W. Thomson petitioned the Town Council "mentioning that after tryall taken of the petitioners' qualifications in the moneth of November 1715 years, the tyme of the late Rebellion, they were presented to bursaries in the College Marischall of Aberdein, and continued at the said College untill Candlemas thereafter, that their masters the Regents deserted them and left the College; and there being nothing taught in the College since that tyme, the petitioners applyed to your honours and were by your order examined by the present Masters of the said College and found by them sufficiently qualified in Latine and Greek for entering to the Semi class". This they are allowed to do. (T. C. Reg., lviii., 571, 718.)

<sup>7</sup> This list, from Album II., coincides exactly with that given in the printed Theses of 1732: dedicated to Provost James Morison and the Town Council of Aberdeen. Italics are used presumably with the same signification as in former years. (See 1708.) For the curious history of the copy in Aberdeen University Library, see Notes and Queries, 6, vii., 444. These Theses, the latest that have been traced (cf. 1623, supra), are entitled, Dissertatio philosophica de natura et legibus materiae, and are sixteen in number, filling ten small quarto pages.

<sup>3</sup> In session 1772-73 the records in Album II. become much fuller, the parentage of the students being given. The members of the Class of 1769-73 are entered only as magistrands; those of 1770-74 only as tertians and as magistrands; of 1771-75 only as semis, as tertians and as magistrands; of 1772-76 only as bajans and as magistrands; of 1773-77 only as bajans, as tertians and as magistrands. In the Class of 1774-78 and in all later classes, the records of the bajans, semis, tertians, and magistrands are practically complete. To obviate undue repetition, a student's name is printed only once for any Class, and to it are suffixed the letters b, s, t, m, and A.M., according as the Album shows him to have been a bajan, semi, tertian or magistrand of that Class, or to have graduated. Occasionally a student, entering College with a certain Class, pretermits attendance for a session or more, and reappears as a member of a later Class. The names of the bajans of a Class are printed first in the usual alphabetical order of prenames. Then follow the additional semis, the additional tertians and the additional magistrands, each forming a separate alphabetical arrangement, and having suffixed figures and letters with the usual significance. From 1772 to 1787 the entries in the Album are almost always holograph of the students. (See details in Preface.) The names of Honorary Masters of Arts are added from the Minutes and Accounts.

<sup>4</sup> The names of the semis of 1774-75 are not recorded. The Album list of tertians of 1775-76 is imperfect. The entries in brackets [t] are taken from the signatures appended to a letter addressed to Professor Patrick Copland by the members of his first class, which is otherwise of interest as fixing the date when Latin ceased to be used colloquially in the College.

"Hond. Sir,

"Uncertain whether at the coming public examination you propose to examine the students of this class in the Latin language, or to deviate from a custom which we apprehend has not many cogent reasons to support it, we beg leave respectfully to lay before you our sentiments on this subject, hoping you will condescend to consider and (should it appear reasonable) comply with the subsequent request. We beg leave to observe that speaking Latin is not commonly considered as a necessary branch of education; we are, indeed, instructed to read and write that language with propriety; but to speak it, and that fluently, would be a very difficult attainment, a faculty of no material use, and what we may venture to assert very few are possessed of. The public examination, we apprehend, is intended to prove what proficiency we have made in Natural Philosophy, not in the Latin Tongue: would it not then be unjust that by reason of an inferior degree of knowledge in that language, or probably from an accidental want of expression, any one of us should incur the reproach of ignorance and inattention, when possibly that very person may have applied himself most diligently to the subject we have been studying? In fine, that the possibility of this and other disagreeable consequences may be removed, and that this class may not labour under a disadvantage from which every other is now exempt. With due deference to your superior judgment, we make this unanimous request that we may be examined in no other than our native language; and in return for this condescension we hope to evince that the care and attention you have bestowed in instructing us have not been ineffectual."

The "public examination" referred to was not the graduation examination, for some account of which see infra, 1821-25.

<sup>9</sup> In the latter half of the eighteenth century the degree examinations had become altogether farcical. "They consisted of a series of Latin questions in Logic and Rhetoric, introduced by Dr. Beattie about 1765 or later, when public laureations were discontinued. The same set answered for all years: the Professor of Moral Philosophy dictating copies of both questions and answers to the candidates, hearing them recite by rote the answers, and then hearing them a second time recite the same in presence of the Faculty. This plan, by which no one could possibly be rejected, continued till 1824. . . . The innovation of Dr. Beattie was, doubtless, partly sanctioned by the still older custom of giving assistance to the graduates in their theses and declamations; but it had long ere 1824 become a great nuisance and disgrace. And, as if to sanction such a fraud on the College and the public, the words of the diploma remained unaltered, 'ingenii sui ac eruditionis luculento specimine edito,' which became an obvious untruth" (Knight's MSS.).

On 7th March, 1825, the Senatus, "being of opinion that some alteration should be made," enjoined each Professor to examine the candidates in the last week of the Session, "at whatever hours he shall find most convenient and in the manner which he himself approves": on the day of graduation the Professor of Moral Philosophy to examine "in the manner which he approves, on which occasion also the Principal may, if he chooses, put such questions as he shall think fit. . . . Due allowance to be made for the short notice which can now be given to the candidates" (Min.).

"We were glad," says Knight, "to get rid of the abuse of the last 50 years. There were 31 candidates; of whom 5 were rejected for answering not one word. But, to the astonishment of all, Dr. Glennie held his examination, in the old mode, by the old Latin questions: thus tying the living to the dead. For the rejected students pled afterwards that they answered all his questions as well as any others who passed! Three of the five presented a memorial to the Rectorial Court of Hume."

<sup>1</sup> As a natural sequence to the new examinations for M.A. (1821-25, supra), a system of entrance examinations was established. In session 1826-27 these were imposed on all bursars of the 2nd, 3rd or 4th years; in 1827-28 they were made compulsory on all gown'd or public students. Students not passing these examinations were allowed to matriculate and attend classes; but were styled private students. Such are indicated by a prefixed italic p.

<sup>4</sup> "And so, for four years, we wore the red gowns and the red velvet collars which were the compulsory costume of the Students of Arts, till one early spring-day we were ranged ceremoniously in the public hall, some eighteen or twenty of us who had completed the curriculum out of a class originally seventy strong; and there, clad all uncouthly in black silk gowns, which the college beadles had begged, borrowed, or stolen from the city clergy for the occasion, were made to repeat the words of a Latin oath, and, having been dabbed on the head individually by the Principal with a sacred bit of black velvet, were created and admitted Masters of Arts. . . . What a flock of fledgelings were these (the youngest of us exactly sixteen years and four months old) that flew off into the world from that northern nursery of learning, feathered loyally with the fine designation." Professor David Masson in Macmillan's Magazine for February, 1864.

The identifications of this Class are mainly from a MS. record kept by one of its surviving members, Mr. George Allan.

<sup>1</sup> See pp. 31-50. There seems no reason to doubt that a bayan class began studies in Marischal College in the autumn of 1593, the year of its foundation. The buildings of the Gray Friars were ready to accommodate them (vol. i., p. 85), and we find that an Economus or steward had been appointed on 18th June (supra, p. 33). Doubtless, as in Edinburgh (Dalziel's Hist., vol. ii., pp. 11-19), the Principal conducted the earliest entrants through the four years of their curriculum, the three regents being added in 1594, 1595 and 1596 respectively, as the advent of new classes made the need for them felt. The names of these early regents have not been preserved, and, indeed, prior to 1678, when the Register of Presentationes begins, it is impossible to assign with absolute certainty the classes to the various teachers. Down to about 1641 (vol. i., p. 64; cf. Off. and Grad. of King's Coll., p. 315), the four regents (till 1620 the three regents and Principal) were Professors of Greek, Logic, Moral Philosophy and Natural Philosophy, and did not "circulate".
